

Ragsdale Vetoes Referendum Plan For Junior Highs

Mayor's Statement Declares That Carrying Out of Proposal Would Disrupt School System.

SCHOOL OFFICIALS COMMEND ACTION

Veto Results From Protests by Parents and Education Heads Against Junior High Abolition.

Mayor J. N. Ragsdale Wednesday vetoed a proposal to ask the city democratic subcommittee to place on the primary ballot a referendum as to whether junior high schools in Atlanta should be abolished, and at the same time issued a statement in which he declared such a procedure would disrupt the school system of Atlanta, defer the building program already mapped out in contemplation of administration of bond funds and leave thousands of children without proper school facilities.

Mr. Ragsdale's action came as a result of protests from parent-teacher organizations and representative citizens in all walks of life who insisted that abolition of the junior high school system is impracticable, is not in line with the modern tendency in education and that investments already made by the city and which total several millions of dollars would become practically useless if the institution was abolished.

Termed Constructive Act.
Disapproval of the paper was hailed by school friends as one of the most constructive acts of the present administration and a move designed to obviate what threatened to be a "crisis in the educational system of the city."

It also settles for the time being the referendum matter and a call which J. P. Wall, chairman of the city democratic executive committee, issued for a meeting of that body today was canceled pending action of council on the veto. Predictions were that members of council who voted for the referendum when it was offered will reconsider their action after having had time to weigh the sweeping effect such a move would have at this time.

City council is expected to have before it for consideration on April 10, recommendations for award of contracts for additions to East, Brown and O'Keefe Junior High schools, which were referred to the board of education by action of council Monday.

After council voted to ask the referendum, members failed to award the contracts as recommended but referred them to the board for information concerning possible utilization of the completed structures as elementary or senior high schools in the event the referendum carried. It is expected that the recommendations will be returned to council in line with the referendum move.

Other New School.
Contract recommendations for the junior high schools also will be accepted.

DEPEW STRICKEN WITH PNEUMONIA
AFTER BAD COLD
New York, April 4.—(AP)—Chauncey M. Depew, chairman of the board of directors of the New York Central railroad, has developed bronchial pneumonia, his physicians said tonight in a bulletin issued through the offices of the Michigan Central railroad. The bulletin, which was signed by Dr. Samuel W. Lambert and H. Lyman Hooker, said the condition of the aged railroad official was "not immediately alarming."

Earlier in the day physicians attending the 93-year-old railroad executive, who has been suffering from a cold since his return from the south, said the patient was resting comfortably after a good night.

WILLIS A. SUTTON COMMENDS VETO ACTION OF MAYOR

School Superintendent Declares Building Program Must Not Be Halted as Need Is Urgent.

Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta schools, when apprised of Mayor J. N. Ragsdale's veto of the measure requesting a referendum on the junior high school proposition in Atlanta, declared that he felt the mayor's veto would meet with widespread approval throughout the city. He said that the mayor could be highly commended for his action, which he declared was fully justified.

Mr. Sutton, in a statement issued when he was apprised of the veto said that he felt that Councilman Lyle, in offering the resolution calling for a referendum was actuated by the highest motives, but felt that he had acted without having all the facts in mind. Mr. Sutton describes conditions as they are at present and points out the disastrous effects a change from the present junior high system would have on Atlanta's educational system.

Sutton Statement.
Mr. Sutton's statement, in full, follows:

The action of Mayor Ragsdale in vetoing the resolution requesting the executive committee to place a referendum on the primary ballot with reference to the junior high school system will meet with widespread approval throughout the entire city. The mayor is fully justified in vetoing this measure and should be commended by the people of the city. There has been no effort made by the people through the board of education, or by any other way, to abolish the junior high schools. On the other hand, the great masses of the people, the abolition of the present junior high school system would entail the revamping of the entire building program.

WEST PEACHTREE EXTENSION SEEN

Plan To Connect Huntington Road With Peachtree Road Would Relieve Congestion at Brookwood.

A proposal to connect Huntington road with Peachtree street near Pershing Point, a move expected to relieve traffic congestion on Peachtree near the Brookwood station, Wednesday was taken under advisement by the Fulton county commission at its regular monthly meeting.

After two hours largely devoted to routine matters the commission adjourned to reconvene at a special session at 2:30 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon.

The proposed Huntington road connection would be a virtual extension of West Peachtree, involving an underpass beneath the Southern railroad on the east side of Peachtree. Residents who brought the petition were asked to confer with the county highway commission.

CITY MAY LOSE HALF-MILLION VIADUCT FUND

County's Gift Must Be Applied Directly To Bridge Construction, Commission Head Holds

VIADUCT BODIES TO MEET TODAY

Probability That City Will Be Forced To Supplement $650,796 Balance in Treasury Forecast.

Probability that the city may lose the $500,000 contribution of Fulton county toward construction of the Pryor street and Central avenue viaducts and thus be forced to supplement $650,796 balance in the treasury for erection of the bridges was forecast Wednesday, unless a bid is accepted whereby the county's donation can be applied directly to the construction work.

This prediction was made on the eve of a joint meeting of the bridge committee and the viaduct construction committee of the bond commission, which is slated for 11 o'clock this morning at the city hall. Alderman W. Guy Dobbs, chairman, called the session just as soon as tabulation of bids was completed.

Thirteen bids were submitted on the projects by leading contractors from all sections of the south. Tabulations submitted by those bidding, with a stipulation that the contractor look to Fulton county for $500,000 to be paid by the county on a payment plan, one-third in three annual installments, follow:

Tabulated Bids.
MacDonald Construction company, Atlanta, $810,331.32; Seaboard Construction company, Jacksonville, $817,575.41; Davis Construction company, Atlanta, $818,278.90, and the Brooks Callaway company, Atlanta, $821,962.50.

This bidding, with the city to furnish all finances, were Shervette Construction company, Atlanta, $705,373; Nichols Construction company, Atlanta, $760,655.25; Seaboard Construction company, Jacksonville, $772,830.54; MacDonough Construction company, Atlanta, $772,832.12; Davis Construction company, $774,168.90; Brooks-Callaway company, Atlanta, $824,952.50; Sierra Construction company, $888,211.60; Hardaway Construction company, $908,324.40, and the Lockman Construction company, $844,408.60, exclusive of piling which must be used as a foundation for bridge supports.

City's Balance $650,796.
B. Graham West, city comptroller, issued a financial statement which pointed out that the city now has a balance of $650,796 for the viaducts.

The $650,796 balance, which is $54,604 more than the money on hand. This, it was pointed out, precludes award of the contract on any basis except one in which the contractor will look to the county for the $500,000.

Award of the contract with the city financing the bridges also would preclude adjustment of the off-set where Central avenue and Ivy street intersect Decatur street, and other necessary improvements which should be carried on coincident with the construction program.

Business in the viaduct area has been practically paralyzed for the past several days.

Rotten Eggs Rout Georgia Smith Club

White-Robed Students Attack Pro Smith Faction Parade.

Athens, Ga., April 4.—(Special.)—The A. I. Smith-for-President club of the University of Georgia was routed before a shower of antiquated eggs Wednesday night before a gawking populace that witnessed the spectacle in the downtown section of this little city.

Formed yesterday by less than half a hundred students of the oldest university in the south, the A. I. Smith club, the "big parade" of the A. I. Smith faction was battered into a mere mass of dripping misanthropic substance in full rout—twenty-four hours afterward.

The Smith faction had been loyal to the New York democrat. Yesterday they had wired him before his departure and that tonight a big procession would parade through the streets.

The procession did start. There were a few torch lights. There was a big brass drum, and a saxophone or so, musically embroidered by the jazzy plunk-plunk of a modern banjo. They marched to the downtown streets—nearly a half hundred of the

U. S. Jury Probes Chicago Bombings And Gang Crimes

MERCHANTS ENJOY BRISK PRE-EASTER SHOPPING SEASON

Feminine Motif, Longer Skirts, More Importance in Accessories for Women; Green for Men.

BY LOYD A. WILHOIT.
Merchants of Atlanta this year are enjoying earlier Easter trade which began earlier than usual despite inclement weather, and which is showing a gratifying increase over business of the same period last year.

This fact—together with the advent in Atlanta of a number of new and interesting styles for clothing of men and women—was brought to light Wednesday in a series of interviews secured by The Constitution from local merchants. The survey of business conditions was conducted on the heels of a movement inaugurated by The Constitution to promote a mood for earlier Easter and spring buying in this paper's highly successful first annual Easter Festival week.

Merchants in all lines said that trading conditions now are improved as compared to conditions last year, and all noted a growing tendency on the part of the buying public to be more discriminate in its selection of wearing apparel.

Big Increase for Highs.
One of the most enthusiastic statements was supplied by the J. M. High company. W. F. Robie, sales promotion manager of this Whitehall street department store, said that sales of Monday and Tuesday of this week showed an increase of more than 60 per cent over sales for the corresponding two days of 1927.

"And today (Wednesday)," he added, "give promise of continuing this phenomenal record. Our business all along has been brisk, becoming particularly active with the recent advent of warm, sunny weather. We expect an increase in shopping through Saturday—the last day before Easter—and are prepared to take care of the rush."

"All this is highly commendable, as it shows clearly the pride which the people of Atlanta are taking in their personal appearance as well as in their homes and surroundings. In addition, it definitely reflects the healthy business conditions of the city in every way."

Easter Early This Year.

"Easter is earlier this year and spring came later than normal," said Raymond A. Kline, vice president and general manager of the Layson-Paxon company. "The late spring had the effect of slowing down shopping, and the early advent of Easter caused it to take an abrupt spurt. With the first of warm, sunny weather, this would have hurt us, for Easter then marked the culmination of a buying period in the same way that Christmas did last year."

"Business with this store has been very good despite adverse weather conditions. An interesting feature in connection with Easter business is that it marks the definite turning away from the severe, boyish styles in clothing and a return to soft, fluffy, feminine things. In these lines we have seen a more pronounced activity than has been the case in many years."

"It is also interesting to note that since women have been allowed more latitude in styles by the salons of Paris, they have been away from the old rule of wearing just what was decreed by fashion. Nowadays they have come to adapt the mode of the day to their own personal needs, thus

BRANDS THEM "SOCIALISTS, PACIFISTS, FEMINISTS"

Boston, April 4.—(United News.)—Mrs. Helen Tufts Baile, prominent local D. A. R. member, who made public the famous "D. A. R. blacklist" several days ago, tonight made public an additional list of 78 prominent women known as "doubtful speakers."

These women, Mrs. Baile said, had been barred as "socialists, pacifists, communists, radicals or feminists" from addressing a D. A. R. gathering. Mrs. Baile also revealed that information regarding members on this and the previous list had been obtained in many cases from the Industrial Defense Association, Inc., of Boston.

This association, headed by E. A. Hunter, Mrs. Baile said, supplies information regarding prominent men and women and organizations as "to their radical, red, communistic or other so-called dangerous leanings."

The association did not draw up the blacklists, Mrs. Baile said, but merely supplies information about certain names on the lists. Mrs.

Federal Government May Take Hand in Aftermath of Recent Windy City Outrages.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY DIRECTS HEARING

Jurors Are Instructed on Jurisdiction in Bomb Attacks Attributed to Primary Fights.

Chicago, April 4.—(AP)—A federal grand jury began to determine today if there were grounds for the national government making the Chicago bombings and gangster murders its business.

Immediately after the jury assembled for the April term of court it took up recent outrages some ascribed to the rivalry of the primary campaign. Most important of these were bombings of the homes of Senator Charles S. Deneen and John A. Swanson, a Deneen candidate for state's attorney.

When impaneled yesterday the jurors were instructed by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson as to their jurisdiction in election intimidations and restraints.

Of unusual significance was the appearance before the jury of George E. Q. Johnson, district attorney. Not since Johnson became district attorney has he personally handled a grand jury's investigation. Usually an assistant presented the cases.

George E. Golding, chief of a special prohibition force, which has been operating in Chicago since last January, followed Johnson before the grand jury. Golding's squad is credited with exposing an alleged conspiracy that involved an alderman and several local officials.

The government continued to hold Leonardo Juliano, designated by federal operatives as leader of a Chicago Highways racket. He is believed to have had something to do with the Deneen and Swanson bombings, although Johnson admitted yesterday that nothing had been uncovered to substantiate that belief.

The city completed today its argument against the transfer of an appeal to kill charge against a prohibition agent from state courts to federal jurisdiction. The district attorney's office will voice its defense of Judge Wilkerson's writ of habeas corpus tomorrow. The agent is Myron Caffey, one of Golding's men, who wounded a municipal court bailiff during a raid on a saloon.

Samuel Ettelson, corporation counsel, declared the federal government exceeded its authority in issuing the writ. In support of his contention that there is no cause until there is an indictment, Ettelson cited the case of a dry operative in Virginia. The complaint against Caffey was signed by the bailiff's wife who was with him when the shooting occurred.

Palmer Anderson, United States marshal, received word from John G. Washington, April 4.—(AP)—William Allen White's reply to his inclusion in a speakers' "blacklist" by the Massachusetts chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is looked upon as an "absolute misstatement of facts" by the organization.

Gone 16 Years Georgia Man Returns Home

Former Mayor of Tifton Declines To Tell Why or Where of Disappearance.

Tifton, Ga., April 4.—(AP)—Missing for sixteen years and believed to have been a victim of foul play, Samuel M. Clyatt, unexpectedly returned here today.

When Clyatt disappeared near Valdosta, Ga., on October 25, 1911, a passenger train was stopped near a bridge in which he had been riding. For several months search was made for the body.

Efforts were made to collect $25,000 life insurance but the insurance company employed detectives to investigate and refused to pay the claim. Reports were obtained that Clyatt had been seen in Valdosta and at other places a few days after he disappeared.

Two years before his disappearance, Clyatt had resigned as mayor of Tifton to move to Valdosta, Ga. He was interested in naval stores operations near Valdosta and was missed while on an inspection trip. Clyatt, who is 60, has a wife and one son living here. He declined to say where he had spent the 16 years past, but it was known that he recently had been in Florida, from where he communicated with his family.

DAM OF DEATH ON WRONG SITE, SAY ENGINEERS

Should Never Have Been Built in San Francisco Canyon, Report Declares.

ROCK FOUNDATION UNFIT FOR LOAD

Defective Foundation Material Blamed for Disaster Which Caused Four Hundred Deaths.

Los Angeles, April 4.—(AP)—Without fixing responsibility for the collapse of St. Francis dam on March 13, a committee of engineers who investigated the causes of the disaster reported today the dam should not have been constructed in San Francisco canyon.

Some 400 persons lost their lives when the dam gave way and unleashed a tremendous torrent down the canyon.

The engineers, delegated by the district attorney to make a report on the catastrophe to the coroner's jury, reported the huge water barrier was built on rock formation which softened with saturation and consequently was unsuited to carry the enormous load of the 185-foot retaining wall.

Although declaring that a sufficiently thorough examination of the geological formations in San Francisco canyon had not been made, the investigators found from their examinations that the failure of the dam was due to defective foundation material.

There have been previous scandals blown about these office sales and assessments—some from Virginia, some from South Carolina, others from Florida and yet others from Tennessee and Texas. All have had the same implication of personal graft under the guise of political patriotism.

This lurid Georgia case may now become the long-needed alpha of a reform movement that will thoroughly expose the graft system of dispensing favors in the state department of the south where the republican party is a barren industry.

Senator George had read into the Congressional record the report by the Associated Press of the tragedy at Douglas and the revelations accompanying it. He said to the senate:

An Honorable Man.
"Mr. Peterson was an honorable man and held office during three separate administrations. He was personally known to me. I am prepared to accept the statement made by him. TORNADO SWEEPS ARKANSAS COUNTY

One Dead, Score Injured, in Blast of Winds That Flattens Homes; Heavy Rain Damage.

Fayetteville, Ark., April 4.—(AP)—Disaster followed disaster in Arkansas today when a tornado, trailing the torrential downpours that saved the Ouachita national forest from further fire damage, swept through at least three communities in this county and left one dead and possibly a score or more injured, six seriously.

The 12-year-old son of Mrs. Marion Spears, 50, was killed when the tornado flattened the Spears home on the outskirts of Lincoln, a prosperous town 20 miles southwest of here. His mother was injured seriously at the same time.

Miss Ruth Kerr, 16, a Mrs. Osborne and Mrs. Mary Payne were injured probably fatally in the same vicinity, while near Vine Grove, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Wilson were reported in precarious condition.

Property damage had not been estimated tonight, as the communities were in darkness and confusion and isolated with all wires down.

A special train carrying doctors, nurses and supplies left here for Lincoln soon after news of the tornado was received and had not returned at 10 o'clock tonight.

First reports of the tornado, which

DOUGLAS DEATHS THROW SPOTLIGHT UPON G. O. P. GRAFT

Leaders of Both Parties Determined To Reveal Spoils of Managers in Georgia and Elsewhere.

BY SAM W. SMALL.

Washington, April 4.—The slaying and suicide by former Postmaster Peterson, at Douglas, Ga., has stirred not only the Georgia delegation in congress, but excited profound interest among leading members of both parties here at the capital and in the general press of the country.

As nothing else before, it has thrown a red searchlight upon the patronage trading tactics of the republican managers in the southern states, where republican politicians have no other interest than in the spoils of office.

This latest revelation is only a tragic proof of the corrupt system of office brokerage by which republican leaders in the south trade republican convention support for the right to sell southern federal offices and live off the proceeds. The vast sums of money grafted from the office seekers and office holders in the south never appear in the financial reports required by law to be periodically filed for public information. No one has ever seen such reports from Georgia.

Previous Scandal.
There have been previous scandals blown about these office sales and assessments—some from Virginia, some from South Carolina, others from Florida and yet others from Tennessee and Texas. All have had the same implication of personal graft under the guise of political patriotism.

CRAZED FATHER SLAYS CHILDREN

Worker Chases His Wife From Home; Kills All of Children; Is Found Tossing Dog in Air.

Durham, N. C., April 4.—(AP)—Hacking to bits every living thing he could reach, except his dog, Bay Roberson, 40, a sawmill worker and small farmer in northern Durham county, early today killed his three small children with an axe after having driven his wife from their home.

Arrested in the woods near his home after a brief hand-to-hand fight with Sheriff J. F. Harwood and three deputies, he was placed in a padded cell at the county jail and late today was a raving maniac.

Been Acting Queerly.
Roberson had, officers were told, been acting queerly for several weeks. He had been away from home last night and returned about midnight. His wife, hearing him raving, fled to a nearby sawmill but could not get her children out. Roberson entered the house and killed Cecil, 12, who was ill with measles, and Joseph, 4; Louise, 9; his daughter apparently ran to the yard. There the insane man overtook her and split her head.

Carrying the bodies to the left of his barn, Roberson cut off hands and feet and hacked the bodies half. He then threw them into the yard.

Turning from the children he killed every chicken he could catch and cut a big gash in the back of a horse. He battered his automobile almost into a mass of scrap iron.

Found in Woods.
When officers went to the scene they found Roberson in the woods about 100 yards from the house, playing with his dog, tossing it into the air and catching it. He attacked the deputy sheriffs and inflicted slight injuries.

Corporation Tax Cut Only From 13 1/2 to 12 Per Cent in Senate Committee.

DEMOCRATS SEEK AUTO LEVY REPEAL

Senator Simmons, Party Leader, Promises To Take Fight for Bigger Slash to Floor.

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—The republican majority of the senate finance committee lined up solidly behind Secretary Mellon's $200,000,000 tax reduction program in the first skirmish on the revenue bill today but the democrats of the committee in a meeting later decided to fight for a $300,000,000 slash as a minimum.

After voting unanimously to report a tax reduction bill of some nature, the committee agreed to the proposal of Secretary Mellon to cut the 13.12 per cent corporation tax only to 12 per cent rather than 11.12 per cent as voted by the house.

Democrats opposed this and asked for an 11 per cent rate and then an 11.12 per cent figure, but both proposals were rejected on strict party divisions, 11 to 9, with republicans voting solidly against both.

Under the $300,000,000 program agreed to at the minority conference late today, the democrats would increase the 11 per cent corporation tax; repeal the 3 per cent automobile tax; revise the rates on intermediate surtaxes and increase the exemptions on the admissions tax.

The administration strongly opposes repeal of the automobile tax, which was voted by the house. Secretary Mellon insisting this is demanded largely by the manufacturers. The democrats also decided to ask for brief hearings by the committee in order to permit the automobile manufacturers to present their case and to give the Chamber of Commerce of the United States an opportunity to answer Mr. Mellon.

The democratic position assures a warm fight on the revenue measure. They are outvoted 11 to 9 in committee and republicans are expected to stand behind the treasury. A floor fight is now certain, and now many votes the democrats can pick up there is problematical. A slight shifting of republicans would give Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, democratic leader, a majority, but republican independents have announced themselves against any tax cut and little support from that quarter is expected by the minority.

Senator Simmons declared for a total $300,000,000 slash or at least a figure as high as was approved by the house—$200,000,000. He did not have the entire support, however, of minority members. Senator King, of Utah, desiring to stand by the $200,000,000 limitation until the extent of appropriations was more definitely determined.

VOTE ON FOREIGN POLICY DELAYED

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—After an hour's discussion today the senate foreign relations committee deferred action on the Nye resolution by which the senate would declare it would never be the policy of the United States to guarantee or protect by force the investments and property of its citizens in foreign countries.

Wherever American citizens had claims against foreign countries as a result of their investments therein the government, under the resolution, would assist them through its good offices but would "in no case forcibly interfere in the orderly settlement of such controversies or utilize its army, navy or marine corps, or otherwise employ force with a view to demanding or achieving settlement of such claims."

The resolution further proposes that the president be requested to publicly proclaim "this doctrine of self-determination as being an integral part of the policy of the United States from now on and memorialize the other nations of the world with the expressed hope, by taking similar action, will assist in conferring the blessing of peace and prosperity upon all their people."

Chairman Borah said consideration of the resolution would open up discussion of the whole question of employment of American armed forces in West Indian and Latin American countries, and that as a result a decision on the resolution could not be reached at today's session.

OFFICERS ELECTED IN MORGAN COUNTY

Madison, Ga., April 4.—(Special).—The democratic primary in Morgan county was one of the quietest elections ever held with the following being named for county office:

Ordinary, A. H. Winter; clerk of court, H. Baldwin; sheriff, C. S. Baldwin; coroner, Len Hanes, all incumbents and who were unopposed.

In the race for tax collector, L. B. Dickson, incumbent, defeated A. J. Hutchinson; John Rose, incumbent school commissioner, was defeated by W. C. Ivey, and Ben Porter was victorious over A. Scott Patterson for county treasurer.

SILK RAYON MILL IS TO BE BUILT AT WADESBORO, N. C.

Raleigh, N. C., April 4.—(AP)—A new $200,000 silk rayon mill to be located at Wadesboro with $100,000 capital stock subscribed by Wadesboro men was incorporated by Secretary of State Hartness today under the name Jenson Art Weaving company.

The corporation, backed by Frank Bennett, L. D. Robinson, L. D. Rivers and others of Wadesboro is to carry on the business of weavers, cotton doublers, flax and other manufacturing.

Construction of a new plant is to begin at once, it was announced, with 100 men and women to be employed in the making of upholstery, tapestries, bed spreads and other articles of artistic designing.

Vandyke, Pa., April 4.—(AP)—The main line of the Pennsylvania railroad from Pittsburgh to New York and Philadelphia was tied up early this morning by a wreck of 24 loaded coal cars near here. Tracks were pulled up for a considerable distance and switches were broken.

No one was injured and passenger trains were rerouted to Philadelphia.

FLOOD AID BILL VETO PREDICTED

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—Passage by congress without amendment of the $325,000,000 senate-Jones Mississippi valley flood control bill would "invite a veto" by President Coolidge, in the opinion of Representative Frost, of Wisconsin, a republican member of the house flood committee.

Declaring that the measure in its present form would cost the federal government $1,000,000,000, the Wisconsin representative in a statement said that railroads and several hundred land and timber corporations would benefit immensely from the legislation's proposal that the federal government purchase the land for the floodways through Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana, and assume the entire burden of cost of the project.

Land to be protected by the flood works and "purchased in many cases at a few cents per acre, will reach enormous values when the flood control project is completed," he said. Railroads in the valley, he added, would demand $71,000,000 from the government for relocation of their lines as a result of the flood work.

Flood control legislation will advance tomorrow a step further on its congressional journey when the house committee will consider the bill, the granting of right of way on the floor of that chamber to the bill of Senator Jones.

However, it is not expected that the legislation will reach the floor until late next week. The absence of the Illinois house delegation, including Chairman Reid, of the flood control committee, in charge of the bill for the purpose of participating in that state's primary election next Tuesday, and the desire of many members to study the measure closely before the debate, have been the reasons assigned by the house republican leaders for the delay in action.

Two hours will be allotted to the discussion of the measure before the rules committee, Chairman Snell announced.

One hour will be given to proponents of the measure and a similar time to its opponents.

FLIP OF COIN DECIDES WISCONSIN VILLAGE ELECTION

Milton, Wis., April 4.—(AP)—A flip of the coin has made T. I. Place president of this village. Place and Dr. George W. Post each polled 155 votes in yesterday's election. The coin tossing made Place the new president.

TUESDAY'S PRIMARY ELECTION RESULTS

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—The results of yesterday's presidential primary elections and conventions in New York, Kansas, Wisconsin and Maine at a glance:

New York: Total democratic delegation of 80 for Governor Smith. Total republican delegation of 90, untraced.

Wisconsin: Total democratic delegation of 35 for Smith. Republicans still in doubt. Latest returns indicate 9 delegates for Senator Norris, of Nebraska; 7 untraced; 2 for Frank O. Lowden; 1 for Secretary Hoover; 1 in doubt.

Kansas: Two republican delegates chosen in sixth district for Senator Curtis, completing solid state delegation of 23 for him.

Maine: Democrats in state convention instructed delegation of 12 for Smith.

Motion Picture Sent to Atlanta Over Telephoto

New York, April 4.—(AP)—The realm of spot news was opened to the movies today with the first demonstration of transmitting moving pictures over regular telephone wires.

Ten feet of film, taken this morning in Chicago, was put on the wires in that city and received at the New York office of the American Telephone and Telegraph company. It was explained that the same pictures could have been received simultaneously with New York by the six other telephoto offices of the company, situated in Boston, Cleveland, Atlanta, St. Louis, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The pictures were transmitted at the rate of seven minutes for each foot and a half of film, the ten-foot strip, with some intermission between pieces, being sent in something less than two hours.

Commercial application of the telephoto movies is expected to affect chiefly the news reel companies, which in the past have had to depend on airplanes and trains for distribution of their pictures.

The cost of the new service will be approximately $50 a foot of film sent from any one of the eight telephoto offices to all the other seven.

Today's film, a close-up shot of a movie actress taken as she alighted from a train in Chicago, was taken in at New York, rushed to Long Island studio for development and given a private showing in a Broadway theater.

Telephotography of still pictures has become regular but not until today was the field opened to the movies. This was done by use of the regular telephoto sending and receiving sets, but instead of one five-by-seven-inch picture being sent at a time, 24 consecutive "frames" or small movie pictures were pasted up in three strips side by side and sent as one five-by-seven still. Cut apart and connected end to end at the receiving end this formed a foot and a half of film. Then a reel of 24 frames was sent and so on until the whole film had been transmitted.

The demonstration here was attended by the editors of all the new wire services, many of whom expressed the belief that the new means of movie film transmission would revolutionize the news reel business.

TWO MILLION GIRLS UNDER 20 YEARS WORK FOR LIVING

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—Nearly 2,000,000 girls under 20 years of age are working for a living in the United States.

Mrs. Mary Anderson, director of the women's bureau of the department of labor, set this figure today in connection with the issuance by the department of a poster called "Daughters of America."

2-MONTHS-OLD BABE DROWNS AS NIPPLE COMES OFF BOTTLE

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

Hollywood, Calif., April 4.—Baby Ellen Lafferty, 2-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Lafferty, drowned in the milk from her bottle when the nipple became loose. The gush of the milk to the infant's throat and nose filled her lungs and caused strangulation, according to the report turned into the sheriff's office.

CHANCE OF VENUE IN BANK KILLING

Woodbine, Ga., April 4.—(AP)—When a full day's efforts exhausted available jurors and only ten had been accepted to try Homer Simpson, charged with murder and robbery, a change of venue was ordered by the superior court to Glynn county was ordered late today.

Simpson, with Malcolm Morrow, E. G. Miller, W. B. Gibbs, solicitor were jointly indicted on charges of murder and robbery for the slaying of C. A. Perry, cashier of the Bank of Kingsland, after they had forced him to open the vaults which the three men were alleged to have rifled.

Mrs. Todd also was indicted on charges of being an accessory before and after the fact. Walker has not been apprehended.

Ninety taxmen were examined today with most of them being excused because of connection with the bank as depositors or stockholders or relatives of the slain cashier.

Simpson will go on trial in Brunswick today. Mr. B. Gibbs, solicitor general announced, and added that each of those accused would be tried separately.

Perry, before dying of wounds in a Jacksonville hospital, told officers he had been lured from the bank by the three men on the pretext of their being interested in some property he had for sale. After driving out to the property, the trio wounded him and then forced him into their car and drove back to Kingsland and forced him to open the vaults for them.

The cashier said he was then driven out of town with the men and near Jacksonville, their car was wrecked. He found by a passing tourist and taken to the hospital, where he died a short time later.

FALL HAS RELAPSE, HOPES TO ENTRAIN FOR COAST TODAY

El Paso, April 4.—(AP)—Albert B. Felt, former secretary of the interior, suffered a setback today, but members of the family said it was hoped he would be able to leave by train tomorrow for California where he will enter a sanatorium.

His condition was described as being "somewhat limp," due perhaps to the wearing off of stimulants administered to him by getting out of bed and talking of the deposition to be used by Harry F. Sinclair, oil magnate, in his trial in Washington on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in the leasing of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve.

It appeared to be the anticipated let down, the family said, and all the more reason for getting Felt to a lower altitude as soon as possible. The former cabinet member is suffering from heart disease. His pulse was fast again today after being about normal yesterday.

MINORITY REPORT OPPOSES FEDERAL SHOALS CONTROL

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—Holding that the $10,000,000 appropriation recommended in the new Motor bill for the capital stock for the proposed federal Muscle Shoals Corporation would be "merely a start toward the goal of unlimited, expanding government ownership," three republican members of the house military committee today filed a minority report opposing enactment of the measure.

The three members, Representatives Ramsey, of Pennsylvania; Frothingham, of Massachusetts; and Glynn, of Connecticut, also questioned the constitutionality of the bill's proposal to operate the properties under the federal corporation plan.

They said that the committee had received expert testimony that the cyanamid process of making nitrogen was "old fashioned" and inasmuch as the Muscle Shoals plant were obsolete, and that the production there of material for use in fertilizer would be more expensive than if modern methods were used.

"The desire to produce inexpensive fertilizer for the farmer," the report said, "is a purpose with which we heartily concur. To require the manufacture of fertilizer by the most expensive method and to drive private manufacturers of that commodity out of business is not to bring about that result."

JOHN D. GETTING RICH, GIVES AWAY NEW DOLLARS NOW

Lakewood, N. J., April 4.—(AP)—Apparently the new money, John D. Rockefeller, capitalist, arrived at his estate here tonight, after spending the winter in Florida.

Accompanied by a relative, he left the train at Trenton and traveled here by automobile.

At Trenton Mr. Rockefeller, Sr., broke away from his shiny dress habit when he ordered one of the secretaries to give a dollar to each of the four porters who carried his baggage from the Miami Flyer to the two automobiles and a truck which bore the Rockefeller party to Lakewood.

VALUABLE CLOCK AND DIAMOND RING LOOT OF BURGLARS

Five robberies were reported Wednesday to police, included in the loss being a valuable clock belonging to Mrs. Lanzo Richardson, of 1138 West Peachtree street, and a diamond and ruby ring belonging to Mrs. Sig Samuels, of 2131 East Lake drive.

The home of J. C. Henson, at 278 Twelfth street, was robbed of a large quantity of clothing, $18 in cash and two fur coats, while the apartment of H. B. Kirkman, at 1206 Peachtree street, was looted of a traveling bag, a portable typewriter, a wallet and some clothing.

A number of suits of clothing formed the loot of burglars who broke into E. M. Brooks' pressing club at 598 McDaniels street, S. W., according to a police report.

SCHOOL PRESIDENT SAYS RESIGNATION IS BY REQUEST

Ruston, La., April 4.—(AP)—John R. Connaiff, president of Louisiana Polytechnic institute for the past two years, said he never had any intention of leaving the institution at the end of the present scholastic year, he announced today at a special meeting of the student body and faculty.

In making the announcement he said his resignation had been requested by the executive committee of the school. He did not say why the request was made, but T. H. Harris, state superintendent of education and chairman of the committee, stated later at Baton Rouge that the failure to enforce discipline was the reason.

Naval Machinist Claims Aerial Free Drop Mark

Pensacola, Fla., April 4.—(AP)—Harold L. Whitby, naval machinist mate, tonight claimed the world's record for a free drop from an airplane, having shot earthward 4,400 feet today before pulling the rip cord and drifting to earth suspended beneath the spread of a mammoth silk parachute.

Whitby jumped into space from a naval plane at the Pensacola naval training station from an altitude of 5,100 feet and hurtled earthward 4,400 feet before he pulled the rip cord and drifted the remaining 700 feet to the earth.

Two other naval machinist mates, C. W. Morgan and Thomas L. Crawford, also exceeded the previous mark of 2,200 feet which naval officers said was established by an army parachute jumper, the former plunging through space 3,000 feet before pulling the rip cord and the latter 2,700 feet.

All three men engaged in making navy movies went aloft in the naval land planes and while they soared above the field at 5,100 feet altitude snaped out into space and hurtled earthward under the observation of naval officers who verified the distances.

RELATIONS AGAIN STRAINED BETWEEN STATES IN BALKANS

Belgrade, Jugo-Slavia, April 4.—(AP)—Relations between Jugo-Slavia and Albania, which for a time measurably had improved, have become painfully strained over the continual refusal of Albania to relax the recent closing of the frontier because of an alleged outbreak of typhus.

Up to this evening no reply has been received from the Tirana government to Jugo-Slavia's energetic demand for the reopening of the frontier.

The situation was much aggravated today by dispatches reporting that another entire sector in the Struma region had been hermetically sealed by the Albanians.

LOAN TO PRECEDE RETURN OF FRANCE TO GOLD STANDARD

Paris, April 4.—(AP)—L'Echo De Paris today said the next step toward the return of France to a gold standard will be the issuance of a big loan.

This presumably will take place next month and will be for the purpose of getting rid of advances to the state carried by the Bank of France in the shape of treasury bonds, which can not be placed in circulation.

Representatives of the principal French banks have been summoned by the ministry of finance to discuss the terms of the loan.

HEFLIN ASKS OUSTER OF SHIPPING ATTORNEY

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—Removal of Chauncey Parker, of New Jersey, as a member of the legal staff of the shipping board, was called for in the senate today by Senator Hefflin, democrat, Alabama.

Hefflin's demand followed a protracted debate between Senator Black, democrat, Alabama, and Senator Edge, republican, New Jersey, over a claim for $80,000 made against the government by Horace Turner, of Alabama, as a result of difference with the shipping board.

Black had charged that Edge and Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, were blocking consideration of the bill because he had taken part in the recent successful attempt to cut down the appropriation for the shipping board relating to payments for legal services.

After Edge had denied that shipping board officials had urged him to oppose the measure, Hefflin denounced the shipping board policy toward Turner as "small, mean and contemptible."

"I submit," he continued, "that if Mr. Parker, who is drawing a big

PRESIDENT GIVEN POWER TO SETTLE GRANARY CLAIMS

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—A joint resolution authorizing the president to settle claims brought by grain elevators and grain dealers against the Food Administration Grain corporation, was adopted today by the senate and sent to the house.

The claims, amounting to approximately $1,000,000, were brought under agreements made for the purpose of preventing any undue appreciation in the government's liabilities under the guarantees made to producers of the 1919 wheat crop, whereby the government agreed to cover insurance charges on grain necessarily held in storage.

TRIAL OF SINCLAIR SET FOR MONDAY

Washington, April 4.—(P)—Postponement until next Monday of the opening of the criminal conspiracy trial of Harry F. Sinclair growing out of the Teapot Dome lease was granted today by Justice Jennings Bailey in the District of Columbia supreme court.

The delay on motion of attorneys for the defense and, unopposed, by special government oil counsel, was allowed primarily to enable the wealthy oil operators' lawyers to study the deposition made last week at El Paso by Albert B. Fall, a co-defendant with Sinclair at the trial last autumn. Fall's case has been postponed indefinitely because of the condition of his health in court.

Entering the courtroom, Sinclair appeared nonchalant. He smilingly greeted court attendants, shook hands with his counsel and chatted with newspapermen while waiting for court to convene.

To the correspondents he expressed confidence of the outcome of his trial, declaring that the deposition of the former interior secretary would be of great value in the presentation of his case.

"Any time the truth comes out it is bound to help a person," he said. Only a few of the witnesses summoned for the trial were in court, but a number of them were in the city in response to subpoenas. These included M. T. Everhart, Pueblo banker and son-in-law of Fall, who is expected to be chief witness for the government, and Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, who is under indictment here because of his refusal to answer certain questions before the senate Teapot Dome committee.

Everhart is to repeat at the trial the story he recently told the senate committee; that Sinclair turned over to him $253,000 in Liberty bonds shortly after the lease of Teapot Dome and that these securities were used to liquidate the debts of Fall's Texas Rites Land and Cattle company.

The Colorado banker said it was his understanding that the payment was made by the oil operator in consideration of a third interest in that company but that Sinclair had declined to take stock certificates and had no written evidence of his purchase.

Fall has asserted that this was an ordinary business transaction and had no relation to the Teapot Dome lease. The defense is to rely primarily upon the Fall deposition and the testimony of Captain J. E. Robinson, U. S. N., retired, who held frequent conferences with Fall about the disposition of the naval oil reserves before they were released.

Through Robinson counsel for Sinclair expect to show that the policy of leasing the reserves originated with the navy department in accord with a decision to take the oil out of the ground and have it in storage at strategic points ready for instant use by the navy.

While the Sinclair trial is in progress the senate Teapot Dome committee will not press its inquiry into the disposition of the Liberty bond profits of the Continental Trading company.

Both Chairman Nye and Senator Walsh, of Montana, prosecutor, said public hearings would be suspended unless there was uncovered information which would make a hearing necessary.

EGGS ROUT SMITH CLUB AT ATHENS

At Smith boys The leader, Gwynn Nixon, president of the club, mounted the improvised platform to speak.

But among the 2,000 odd other students there suddenly sprang another faction. With a rebel yell, they swarmed down on the Smith boys, packed in dormitory sheets and little else. They were not Ku Klux Klansmen. The Smith boys admit that. They were merely college boys.

Whooosh! A fusillade of over-ripe eggs sailed through the intersection of Clayton and College streets. The Smith president on the platform said "Phew!" The others tried to stem the tide. But they were outnumbered, ten to one.

Latest reports from Athens were that all is quiet on the campus, with shower baths in great demand.

juries on one before he was subdued, bound and forcibly carried to the jail here.

Mrs. Roberson, who was brought here today by friends and relatives, said she could not account for the sudden insanity of her husband. She said he had been acting "queerly" and that once she had left him because of ill treatment.

In his cell at the jail today he babbled incoherently most of the time. Asked why he killed the children he replied "I had a long talk with Jesus last night."

QUINBY ANNOUNCES FOR CITY MARSHAL

Outlining his career and qualifications for the post, L. D. T. Quinby, of 34 Peachtree circle, widely known in local real estate circles, Wednesday announced his candidacy for the post of city marshal to succeed Walter E. Harwell, in the democratic white primary to be held June 6.

Mr. Quinby is a native of Virginia, and is a graduate of the law school of the University of Virginia. Following his graduation, with his father and brother, he practiced law in that state until he removed here.

The Cotton States Exposition, held in this city in 1895, drew Mr. Quinby to Atlanta as a visitor and after viewing the possibilities of the city, he removed here and qualified for law practice. Several years later he became connected with one of the largest manufacturing silverware firms in the country and was appointed retail credit manager of the New York shop of the company.

Later, Mr. Quinby returned to Atlanta and became engaged in real estate, in which occupation he has continued for 16 years.

"During these years," Mr. Quinby said, "I have dealt with property owners throughout the city and am entirely familiar with every street and section. In the office of city marshal an intimate knowledge of law, a wide experience of real estate, in its varied forms, is an asset to the proper conduct of the office."

"I have chosen as my chief deputy a life long friend, Walter W. Kirkpatrick, who was born and reared in Atlanta. His entire business career has been in the fire insurance field. I feel fortunate in being able to secure his services and heartily commend him as capable and efficient in every way to assist me in the business-like conduct of the office I am asking to be entrusted with."

"I hope my candidacy will meet with sufficient approval to elect me to the office. I will deeply appreciate the honor and confidence bestowed on me and those to be associated with me."

REV. J. L. BUTLER HEADS COLORED CHARITABLE BODY

The Rev. J. L. Butler was elected president of the Atlanta Charitable association, a colored organization, at a meeting held Wednesday night in the Wheat Street Baptist church.

Other new officers are the Rev. P. J. Bryant, president emeritus; Jackson McHenry, recording secretary; W. L. Gholston, assistant secretary; A. Bowie, treasurer; the Rev. G. L. Word, financial secretary; Rev. W. B. Wood, assistant financial secretary; Dr. C. A. Wingfield, corresponding secretary, and T. J. Linton, assistant corresponding secretary.

Plans for the annual outing, to be held the first Monday in June, were discussed and will be announced at a later meeting.

past two years, and unless adequate funds are provided to make necessary renovations as the work progresses it will be stretched over a period of two or three years longer, it was said.

Even if city council finances the projects with the funds which are now available, it could not make these changes, which will cost more than $300,000, until the county has paid in its money. Under the agreement, these funds would not be paid in until the latter part of 1936.

The MacDougal company's bid looking to the county for the $500,000 is $111,538.32 higher than the Shervon bid on the basis of city payment on delivery of the job, but city hall leaders took the position that the city is not financially able to carry the work, and it certainly should not run the risk of losing the county contribution to save the difference in the contract prices.

SUTTON'S REELECTION BY BOARD CONCEDED

Reelection of Willis A. Sutton as superintendent of Atlanta public schools for a four-year term is conceded to be the program of the city board of education for next Tuesday afternoon.

Although two other prominent educators have been mentioned for the post, expressions from a majority of the members of the board indicate that Mr. Sutton will be nominated to succeed himself at the Tuesday meeting. Jesse M. Wells, superintendent of Fulton county schools, and W. F. Dykes, principal of the Fulton County High school, and former city school superintendent, have been mentioned as possibilities.

swept from out of Oklahoma, came from the Mount Tisagah mountain which was struck shortly before six o'clock. From there the wind twisted through the outskirts of Lincoln and the Springfield and Viney Grove communities before entering southeast Benton county. No reports of destruction in Benton county on the Missouri line, had been received.

East in Carroll county the same rain that checked the forest fires in western Arkansas did much damage and threatened more. Berryville was without lights following the heaviest rainfall of the year. Small streams in the county were raging torrents and highways were inundated. A bridge between Berryville and Green Forest was washed out. A Berryville home was partially wrecked by lightning. Arkansas trembled tonight at prospects of another spring like last year's. Floods and tornadoes claimed more than 800 victims and left the state waterlogged and storm-riddled.

TWO STATES BADLY DAMAGED

Wichita, Kan., April 4.—(P)—A terrific windstorm coupled with hail, ran and a decided drop in summer-like temperatures swept southeastern Kansas and northern Oklahoma today.

The storm was most severe in oil fields of Greenwood and Butler counties, Kansas, where an 80-mile gale tore down oil rigs and derricks worth about $50,000.

Reports from Ponca City, Okla., said poultry raisers lost many flocks as the result of the hail. An airplane hangar was unroofed at Newkirk, Okla., where the storm also put electric lights out of commission. Chimneys were blown down in the storm at Eldorado, Kansas.

In 20 minutes 18 of an inch of rain fell in Wichita.

Mrs. Anna Green, 25, was killed near Topeka when a strong wind demolished a chicken house near her home and buried her in the wreckage.

zation's national president, Mrs. Alfred J. Brosseau.

The Kansan's criticism of the organization was met by Mrs. Brosseau with this comment:

"Mr. White to the contrary notwithstanding the present administration and policies will no doubt continue."

She denied that the D. A. R. had ever "even by inference" labeled the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A., or the general federation of women's clubs as "communist." "In fact," she added, "thousands of our finest members belong to the general federation and are active in it. I myself gave Mr. White direct assurance of this fact last summer."

Regarding Mr. White's allusion to the "nice old girls of the D. A. R." being hypnotized by retired army officers and "tea gladiators," Mrs. Brosseau said:

"This is a personal matter between Mr. White and myself and I must consult him as to just what private census lists and records gave him information as to our ages and susceptibility to hypnotism."

SUTTON COMMENTS VETO BY RAGSDALE

gram and would leave the city school system on highly congested in places that double and triple sessions would be necessary, and on the other hand would leave certain communities with more school facilities than they actually needed. Practically every one of the junior high schools are within a block or two of some of our very largest elementary schools, and therefore could not be well used for elementary schools. A going back to the old 7-4 or 8-4 plan would leave us with more high school rooms than we would need.

Results Feared.

"We are sure that Councilman Lyle was actuated by the highest motives and feel that the people had a right to vote upon such a proposition, but we fear that he acted without having all the facts in mind. The submitting of a referendum on the junior high school would have stirred up so much political animosity and would have created in the mind of a small majority a very great prejudice against our high school system. This in turn would make it almost impossible to maintain discipline, order and efficient government within the high schools themselves. If such an issue were submitted to the people every little defect of teacher, pupil or administration would be brought into the wrangle and all of the great outstanding achievements of a junior high school system would be forgotten in the petty politics which would ensue."

"Now that this issue is settled by the mayor's veto we sincerely trust that the school building program can be carried out with all the speed possible to efficient work. The Atlanta schools are literally overflowing at every door. The classes for white children now average far beyond 40. The junior high school classes have passed the 40 mark where only 30 should be in a class room. The negro schools are crowded beyond all hope of efficient work. With this condition staring us in the face we are opening tremendous industrial plants in practically every section of the city. Only recently the Ford plant commenced operation, employing hundreds of people whose children must be educated. The Chevrolet plant will open soon, bringing a great colony of people into the city. Announcements have been made and preparations are being carried out for the removal of the Southern railway offices from Washington to Atlanta, bringing more than 5,000 people here. With schools already overflowing, with crowded conditions and with money voted to relieve these conditions it should certainly be the purpose of every man and woman concerned to see that the present building program is not delayed a single minute longer, and that the great number of unemployed people shall be given work and the schools made ready for the more than 60,000 children who must enter them in September.

"With good will toward all and with a desire to cooperate, let each friend of Atlanta put his shoulder to the wheel and help relieve the congested condition of our schools."

duction in favor of retirement of the national debt and are expected to support the administration's fight for a minimum cut.

A cut in the corporation tax from 13.12 per cent to 12 per cent as voted by the committee will dispose of $123,000,000 of the prospective reduction, and if the $200,000,000 administration limit is adhered to it leaves but little room for further slashes. Mr. Mellon would confine these additional cuts to downward revision of the intermediate surtax rates and a slight increase in the exemptions allowed on admission rates.

OTTLEY'S APARTMENT LOOTED OF CLOTHING

Clothing valued at more than $2,000 was stolen from the apartment of E. G. Ottley, at 1298 1/2 Piedmont avenue, late Wednesday night. Mr. Ottley told police that returning some late at night he found the apartment completely ransacked.

NEGRO, CONVICTED OF BANDITRY, GETS 10 TO 20 YEAR TERM

Louis C. Smith, negro, convicted on a charge of robbery by a jury in Fulton superior court Wednesday, was sentenced to from 10 to 20 years by Judge E. E. Pomeroy.

Smith is alleged to have held up R. E. Farmer, of 205 Walton street, robbing him of $33 and a silver watch on the night of March 11. Bystanders captured Farmer's assailant after a chase, and the negro was later identified by Farmer, who said he knew Smith prior to the robbery.

'FIEND' CASE GOES TO JURY FRIDAY

His identity as the man who has been attacking women on the south side alleged to have been strongly established by six victims, the case against T. J. Lawton, alias Sam Martin, will be presented to the Fulton grand jury Friday, Chief of Detectives A. Lamar Poole announced Wednesday. Lawton has filed an application for a writ of habeas corpus, alleging illegal restraint of liberty, and the hearing has been set for noon Friday before Judge E. E. Pomeroy in superior court.

The automobile which caused Lawton's arrest Tuesday morning is a stolen car, according to Detective S. A. Smith, who said that the coupe was reported stolen from B. M. Gitting, of 732 Juniper street, on January 19. Lawton was arrested when policemen noticed that his car did not have a license tag, and quizzed him, the suspect failing to give satisfactory answers to the questions, it was said.

Lawton's alleged identification as the south side attacker was brought about by the finding of a gray felt hat and a pistol in his car, the suspect filling the description given of the attacker by a number of women. Detective Smith said. At the time of his arrest Lawton was wearing a cap and had the felt hat in the car with him, police said.

Lawton asserted innocence. Questioned Wednesday with regard to the attacks on the south side, Lawton asserted that he was innocent of the assaults, Chief Poole said. The chief of detectives said that Lawton has been established as the man's real name, and that he had been living on Peachtree street, but was also living on Capitol avenue under the name of Sam Martin. Detectives are said to have found clothing in Lawton's room that tallies with the description of the garments worn by the attacker.

BRIDGE BILL PAVES WAY FOR LONG ROUTE

Thomasville, Ga., April 4.—The bill passed by both houses of congress and now awaiting the president's signature, permitting construction of a bridge over the Ocmulgee river between McKee and Fitzgerald, Ga., removes the last obstacle to the establishment of a new through automobile highway from Augusta to Thomasville.

Projectors of this highway have been working for some time. The new route is planned to run from Augusta via Waynesboro, Midville, Swainsboro, Soperton, Mt. Vernon, crossing the Mconee river, the fine bridge at Glenwood, thence to Alamo, McKee, Fitzgerald, Odell, Tifton, Moultrie and Thomasville.

At Thomasville, the route continues in a bee line to Tallahassee whence motorists can continue on 20 miles south to the Gulf coast highway of Florida, now well advanced in construction, or can take the Spanish trail due west to Pensacola, New Orleans and the Pacific coast.

The new route also takes the highway from Savannah, through Waycross and Valdosta, at Thomasville, giving a western connection from here via Montgomery, Ala., to points west. At Thomasville also it connects with route No. 3, via Monticello and Tampa, Fla., down the Florida west coast to Tampa.

Easterners Find Taste for Turnip Greens at Last!

Valdosta, Ga., April 4.—Three carloads of "turnip greens" are being shipped to eastern markets from Valdosta this week. This vegetable has suddenly jumped into great favor in portions of the east and is proving to be a profitable crop for south Georgia producers.

Through the season the average price per car is very good, and owing to the low cost of production, makes the lowly turnip a good market product.

DETROIT-FLORIDA HIGHWAY NEARING FINISH IN HANCOCK

Sparta, Ga., April 4.—Work is progressing rapidly on the Detroit-Jacksonville highway sector in this county running from here to the Greene county line near White Plains. Much of the right-of-way has been cut and the highway force, composed of the county convict gang and an engineer from the state highway department, are making fills and putting in bridges and culverts along the route of the new highway.

The route is surveyed through some of the roughest section of the country and much work will be required in some places to get the road through. The county has purchased heavy machinery, however, and will do the shortest possible time so that travel may be started on the new route. Greene county has her end of the highway completed.

MACON COUNTY SALES OF POULTRY INCREASE

Montezuma, Ga., April 4.—Industries which are steadily increasing in interest in this county are poultry raising and dairying. People are demanding pure-bred stock and that a considerable surplus is being grown is shown by the fact that hens and fliers are being more heavily shipped from here each week. Also the local hatchery is doing a good business, the weekly output being sold largely to county patronage.

Several small dairies are in operation and daily shipments of cream are made. Leaders state that the increased amounts of feedstuffs sold to dairymen and poultrymen are indicative of the interest and careful attention, which these industries are receiving.

Power Company Holds Free Cooking School For South Ga. Women

Valdosta, Ga., April 4.—(Special.) Since south Georgia was honeycombed last year with transmission lines of the Georgia Power company, electric current has been placed at the disposal of not only the people of the smaller towns but the rural housewife.

In order that this current now within reach may be utilized to advantage the company this week is conducting a free cooking school in Valdosta. This is being attended by a large number of ladies from the rural communities and they are shown how to cook by electricity and to make the current a very useful servant.

ATHENS CATTLE SALE BRINGS RECORD PRICE

Athens, Ga., April 4.—(Special.)—From a standpoint of the quality of the animals as well as the average price they sold, the sale of William MacPherson's herd of choice bred registered Jersey cattle, recorded at the State College of Agriculture has been proclaimed as the most outstanding event of its kind in the history of the state.

Three aristocrats of the breed were led into the ring and auctioned for a total of $7,085, or an average per head of $2,361. This is said to be the highest average for a cattle sale in the history of Georgia, and speaks well for the general excellence of the MacPherson herd.

Mr. MacPherson, who is one of the foremost breeders of purebred cattle in the state, has accepted a position to build up a livestock center on the 2,000-acre farm of P. W. Harvey at Thomasville. Mr. Harvey married a daughter of Mark Hanna and owns a splendid plantation at Thomasville, known as "Pebble Hill."

IOWA FARM BODY PREDICTS UPRISING TO BEAT HOOVER

Des Moines, Iowa, April 4.—(Special.)—Nomination by the republican national convention of Herbert Hoover for the presidency would be a signal for the more than a million farmers represented by the corn belt committee "to ignore party lines utterly in their determination to consign this man to private life for all time to come," a resolution passed by the committee at a meeting last night declared.

The resolution expressed belief that the farm vote "easily constitutes a balance of power in such states as Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and the northwest," and asserted that farmers would oppose Hoover because of this "perfidy to the farmer during the world war, and the sinister and reckless attitude he has maintained toward farm legislation during the Harding and Coolidge administrations."

PLANS FOR RAILWAY MERGER IN EAST NEAR COMPLETION

New York, April 4.—(Special.)—Tentative plans for the regrouping of the eastern railroads already have been agreed upon and only the details remain to be worked out. Wall street learned today on the eve of the reconvening of the eastern executive conference here tomorrow.

While some changes may be made before the plan is finally adopted, the present arrangement provides that the Pennsylvania receives the New Haven; the Baltimore & Ohio obtains the Reading and Jersey Central and the Wabash lines east of the Mississippi; the New York Central acquires the Lackawanna and a half interest in the Lehigh Valley with the "Nickel Plate." Wabash lines west of the Mississippi probably will go to the Union Pacific.

NEGRO FIELD DAY AT FORT VALLEY IS HUGE SUCCESS

Fort Valley, Ga., April 4.—(Special.)—The educational conference and field day of the Peach County Negro schools held here at the Fort Valley High and industrial school was one of the largest and finest meetings ever held on the school grounds. Trustees, patrons and friends from the rural districts, 1,400 people, were present to see what the rural schools had accomplished in industry, athletics and literary work.

HIGH BIDS MADE FOR MANUSCRIPT

London, April 4.—(Special.)—A record high bid was made for the manuscript of Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland," which has been made by trans-Atlantic telephone. Dr. A. S. W. Rosenbach, of Philadelphia, who purchased the manuscript, said today. Dr. Rosenbach, who paid 15,400 pounds (roughly $77,000) for Alice's adventures, added: "I have already had many proposals from the other side by telephone and also cable, but I pledged my word not to make any move until I return from the continent in a fortnight."

The directors of the British museum will meet this afternoon to determine the possibilities of raising sufficient money to accept Dr. Rosenbach's suggestion that he would permit the British nation to have the manuscript at the price he paid for it.

Telephone service in the nineties was still a "new-fangled" idea. But today one may converse across the Atlantic as easily as chatting with the man around the corner. With modern service, distance and time are of little consequence—hence the telephone is considered well-nigh indispensable.

It would be futile to estimate the dollar-and-cents value of the telephone, but you get some idea of its worth when you try to picture yourself doing without it.

COUCH PROBE LIKELY TO CONCLUDE TONIGHT

More witnesses in the probe to ascertain whether Alderman J. Allen Couch, of the fifth ward, received $7,000 commissions from purchases of a tract of land on which to establish the Haywood State school, will be quizzed, beginning at 7:30 o'clock tonight, by a special councilman investigating committee, headed by Councilman John A. White, of the fourth ward.

The committee has held three sessions and hope was expressed that the probe will be concluded at the meeting tonight. Councilman White issued a warning to all witnesses who have been subpoenaed to appear promptly.

Chief of Police Wounded in Row Over Town Cafe

Baxley, Ga. April 4.—(P)—W. F. Lester and his wife, who were arrested yesterday after a shooting affray in which Chief of Police W. G. Bell was shot in the leg, were released from jail this afternoon on bonds of $5,000 and $1,500, respectively. Bell was shot after a dispute occurred between the officer and Lester.

Lester and his wife operate a restaurant here. The dispute is said to have resulted over a remark Bell is credited with making regarding why the restaurant owner did not deal with a local wholesale dealer. The dealer is said to have accompanied Bell to Lester's place of business and Bell is then said to have denied making the remark and Lester is reported to have called the officer a liar. Chief Bell is then said to have brought his black and white play on Lester and as he turned to get his gun the officer left the restaurant running.

Lester went in pursuit of the officer with his pistol and as he approached the officer they both opened fire at each other. Witnesses were unable to agree as to who fired the first shot. More than 20 shots were fired in the fight and Bell was shot in the upper part of the leg. Doctors say his wound is not serious.

As Wilson Baxley, a member of Chief Bell's force, and Sheriff H. J. Pudgett were taking the officer to jail Bell is said to have slipped up on the restaurant owner and continued his attack on the man by beating him again with his black and white. Lester was severely beaten before the other two officers could separate Bell from the prisoner.

At this juncture Mrs. Lester entered the fight and she came out of the restaurant with the pistol and threatened Bell for attacking her husband while he was in the custody of the officers.

Lester and his wife will face trial at the next term of court. The man and his wife refuse to say whether

Mouzon Brands Contempt God's Greatest Enemy

With the final week of the six-week union non-day services at the First Baptist church, nearing its close, Bishop Edward Mouzon, of the North and South Carolina Methodist church, Wednesday delivered a stirring sermon before a large audience, declaring that "contempt is the greatest enemy of God, and one of the chief causes of a Christian's downfall in his work for Christ." Rev. J. L. Jackson, pastor of the Kirkwood Baptist church, presided.

These services have been held daily for the past five weeks under the auspices of the Atlanta Christian council and the Evangelical Ministers' association, and have attracted large attendance in religious circles. Many of the city's best-known pastors have given their entire time to the services.

Bishop Mouzon will speak for one hour at the Friday's meetings, from 12 to 1 o'clock.

Bishop Mouzon is from Spartanburg, S. C., and is one of the most picturesque of southern preachers. He has the distinction of being the only minister in the south ever invited to deliver the Bacher lecture at Yale university.

Dr. Paul E. Lineback, of the First Christian church, continues to direct the musical program, assisted at the piano by Mrs. Charles J. Williamson, of the North Avenue Presbyterian church. Dr. H. H. Hunnicutt, pastor of the Inman Park Methodist church, will preside at today's services.

Bishop Mouzon also is conducting a one-week revival at the Druid Hills Methodist church, which will end Friday night. Services begin at 7:30 o'clock each night.

GRAFT IN SPOTLIGHT BY DOUGLAS DEATHS

paign contributions, in order to obtain federal office, but that month by month and year by year during the campaign, and when they are compelled to continue those contributions.

He said he and Senator Harris many months ago specifically called attention of the postmaster general and the attorney general to those conditions in Georgia, "but beyond deterring for the time being those responsible for this condition of affairs, nothing came of it."

George Continues.

Senator George further said, "It is a sad commentary upon free institutions when important public offices are thus peddled about, and when the very tenure of office itself is dependent upon continuous and enforced contributions to a state committee, a party committee, whether that party committee be democratic or republican or what not. The matter is of tremendous importance. It is vastly more important than much legislation which we consider here on the floor of the senate, because it involves the very integrity of our federal system within the states, certainly in the south."

Again he said, "If the sum of the exactions made of federal office holders in my state alone was known that total would be fairly staggering to all decent men and women in the country."

Senator Harris, who was the earliest attacker of these grafters in Georgia, indorsed all his colleagues had said, and added: "Ninety per cent of the postoffice appointments, I believe, are sold in my state, and I do not believe the money ever goes to the republican national committee."

For Personal Use.

"I know something about expenditures by the men in charge who handle the money and I feel sure that they are handling it for their own personal use."

Both senators notified the senate that unless prompt action by the postoffice department and the justice department is had to end this scandalous patronage orgy, they will appeal to the senate for a special committee to thoroughly investigate it.

That would allow inquiry into the sources of income of the political patronage brokers, where they got it and what they did with it, and reveal their bank accounts to trace the sources of their affluence and reveal living without visible means of support.

The entire Georgia delegation feels as the senators do and the Douglas case is likely to become the bomb that will blow up the works of the G. O. P. grafters in the south.

NEW WILL AID IN SIFTING CHARGE.

Washington, April 4.—(P)—Postmaster General New said today the postoffice department is not only willing that the circumstances connected with the suicide of L. S. Peterson, who was removed March 31 as postmaster at Douglas, Ga., be sifted to the bottom but will aid in every way possible to bring all the facts to light.

The "leg puller" has always been with us in politics," he said, "and this department has uncovered several cases of extortion in postmaster appointments. Doubt was expressed at the department, however, that any evidence of extortion would be uncovered in the case."

The case was brought to the postmaster general's attention several weeks ago, he said, and political influence was brought on him to retain Peterson even after a shortage of $214 had been found in his accounts.

Every man in political life knows that he is expected to contribute to the campaign fund of his party, New said, whether he be a republican or democrat. He said an inquiry into the city administration of New York would disclose large sums paid regularly by officials to the Tammany organization.

New said that his telegram to Ben Davis, republican national committee man from Georgia, whom Peterson had accused of extorting $2,000 from him in the last five years, asking the truth about the case, was replied to promptly with the statement that Peterson's only record, payment of $50, was made in March of last year.

RAGSDALE VETOES JUNIOR HIGH VOTE

complicated by recommendations for award of contracts for new schools at Grant Park, Morningside and Haywood State and replacements at Whiteford and Edgewood avenue. The junior high school additions contemplated expenditure of about $623,000, while the other five projects, which are elementary schools, call for an outlay of about $505,000.

This council will consider awards of approximately $1,128,000 worth of new schools, more than one-third of the entire school bond issue at its next session. If the contracts are passed, work can be begun almost immediately and schools will be ready for occupancy when the term opens next September, but further delay will mean that the building program will be seriously affected and that hundreds of new students will face the term without a possibility of being seated in classrooms.

Such a course, officials say, would practically degenerate the system which at this time is taxed to capacity, and would precipitate a crisis in the school system with which the administration department and school board could not hope to cope.

Powell Praises Mayor.

George Powell, president of the board of education, was one of those who praised the mayor for "his stand in the matter and the protection he has attempted to throw about the school system."

"I feel sure that the mature judgment of council, after it has had two weeks to consider the matter, will assert itself and not vote to pass the referendum," Mr. Powell said.

"I believe the people of Atlanta will vote to retain the system, but the unnecessary delay in construction of the schools would be nothing short of a calamity. I sincerely hope the crisis which threatened the program has been averted, and that workmen who need employment may soon be constructing schools for the army of Atlanta school children who need schools."

Action Commended.

Following his action in disapproving the paper, which was passed Monday by city council by a large majority and was sent to him for his approval, the mayor was commended by school officials, Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools; civic, labor, mercantile, financial and political leaders, and the entire school board.

Hundreds of patrons of the schools expressed gratification of the mayor's action. The school board, which has been planned from bond funds and expressed the opinion that the abolition of the junior high schools would have a demoralizing effect on the entire construction program which already has been mapped out.

A large delegation of citizens, parents, teachers, school patrons and others waited on Mr. Ragdsdale Wednesday morning asking him to veto the paper. The delegation was headed by Mrs. Charles Foster, president of the Atlanta council, Parent-Teacher association.

They voiced strenuous objection to the referendum, which they said would have no legal effect and could be ignored by the board of education if the board wished.

Delegation Protests.

Among those in the delegation were: J. H. Smith, principal of Bass Junior High; D. M. Therrell, former member of the board of education from the seventh ward; Mrs. Charles J. Foster, vice president of the Atlanta council; Mr. H. P. T. A.; W. L. McCalley, former member of the board of education; Mrs. E. J. White, president of the Joe Brown Junior High; Mrs. William V. Kingston, president of the Junior High P. T. A.; Mrs. C. F. Von Herrmann, president of O'Keefe Junior High P. T. A.; Mrs. W. D. Kimberly, president of Hoke Smith Junior High P. T. A.; W. W. Gaines, member of board of education from third ward; Mrs. Ed. Pierce, Scott Allen, J. W. Simmons, Horace Bowman and Mrs. S. Shuman.

Councilman George Lyle, of the eleventh ward, author of the referendum paper, told the mayor after a conference Wednesday morning that he would seek to pass the paper over the mayor's veto at the next meeting of council, April 11.

"People of my section of the city are opposed to junior high schools, and I feel that I should abide by their wishes in this matter," Mr. Lyle said. "I am not offended by action of the mayor, who I believe was actuated by the highest possible motives, but feel that the proposal should be submitted."

Mayor's communication, which will accompany the veto to council, is as follows:

"General Council,
"City of Atlanta.
Gentlemen: I am returning without my approval resolution adopted by general council on Monday, April 2, requesting a popular referendum on whether the junior high schools shall be abolished as a part of the Atlanta public school system.

"The people of Atlanta voted the bond money for schools and other purposes more than two years ago. They are demanding new schools and seats for their children and are growing impatient at the delay.

"To approve a resolution would be to disrupt the school system and tie up for an indefinite period the achieving individuality while they keep pace with style demands. One result of this new freedom in dress has been to develop a greater interest in materials and patterns than has been noticed in some time past."

Accessories Important.

Herbert Everett, director of sales for the Chamberlain-Johnson-DuBois company, pointed to the growing popularity of accessories in women's dress as the chief point of pre-Easter shopping interest.

"Business with us has been good," he stated. "We are showing a very satisfactory increase in sales over last year, particularly in accessories, which are becoming more and more important in women's costumes. In gloves, hosiery, bags, shoes, scarfs, pins, hats, underwear, checkers and costume jewelry, tremendous strides are being made and wide popularity attained. These lines have assumed vital importance to women who wish to be smartly dressed, and the increase in demand reflects a growing desire to be correctly outfitted in every detail."

R. E. O'Donnell, general manager of the Keely company, pronounced business at this time brisker than that of the past year.

"Our business for the past thirty days," he stated, "has shown a gratifying increase, and pre-Easter trade with us is active."

Skirts to Be Longer.

One important disclosure with reference to the Easter and spring fashions is that skirts of formal dresses for women will be longer this year than last. E. P. Coffey, general manager of the J. P. Allen company, said there was a decided turn to lower skirts in afternoon, dinner and evening gowning, and that the skirts of the heel of the shoe in the back and coming just below the knee in front. In street and sports wear, he said, the correct skirt hangs just below the knee.

"With the first sign of real spring weather," Mr. Coffey said, "it seemed that all Atlanta and its neighbors throughout this shopping territory flocked in to get outfitted for Easter and spring festivities immediately following the Lenten season. With us business has been unusually good."

Green for Men.

A new note of green will glow in men's clothing of spring, men's outfitters said.

"The past few days of bright weather has put a severe strain on our store," Edgar Chambers, vice president of Parke-Chambers, Inc., said. "This is a rather usual thing at Easter, however, and we are prepared to take care of the rush. Light suits for men are in heavy demand, and for the first time in years green is coming back into its own in men's furnishings. In ties this year to green is particularly noticeable, and the smartly-dressed man will not fail to follow it."

W. N. Austin, of the house of Zachry, men's outfitters, also reported a new vogue for green in men's suits, with tan, gray and blue also popular.

"Our business has been splendid since the first signs of spring," Mr. Austin said. "Judging by its volume, we're convinced that all Atlanta wants to be dressed up for Easter. We are featuring a number of future seasons, and colors in men's suits, one of which is a green that is proving decidedly popular."

CHAMBERS FEARED.

"At present the patrons living in the eastern and western sections of the city are those most incensed. I have today approved a resolution of the school committee adopted by a large majority on April 2, providing for the establishment of junior high schools in those sections. Your honorable body has authorized the appropriation of $1,128,000 for the construction of these schools, and the school board is now in the process of securing the necessary bonds for the purpose."

"While this leaves much to be desired, it is a substantial step in the matter of relief urgently sought. I have no objection to leaving any public question to a vote of the people, but I cannot bring myself to sanction a matter that will agitate patrons of the public schools, and paralyze for an indefinite period the plans for construction of new schools and additions that we so badly need."

"Respectfully,
"I. N. RAGSDALE,
"Mayor."

Holiday for Baseball.

The county courthouse was ordered closed at noon on April 12 to give employees opportunity to attend the opening baseball game here, while an invitation to luncheon on this date, forwarded by L. H. Beall, manager of the Sears-Roebuck store, was accepted by the commission.

Among road improvement projects advocated by delegations Wednesday were: widening of the public works committee was the paving of Marion avenue from Ormewood to Home avenues; paving of Hampton street from Marietta street to Hemphill avenue; grading of Davis circle, just off DeForest road, and the grading and surfacing of Maxwell from East Point to Campbell road.

Projects placed on the program for early completion included paving of St. Joseph street from North Highway to Bankhead highway, and the paving of Federal drive from Mosley drive to the Frank L. Stanton school in Mosley Park.

Street Projects Considered.

Street projects taken under advertisement include the paving of East Main street in College Park, just across the tracks from the highway through the city, and the improvement of Gray street near Jones avenue and Kennedy street near the Gray street intersection.

A proposal by the Fulton Development company to deed 58 acres to the county for a public park just outside the city limits of East Point, lying west of Sims avenue, was held for an investigation and report.

Another proposal, which would raise the jail chaplain's annual salary from $100 to $300, was turned over to the chairman of the public buildings and grounds committee with power to act.

By action of the board, Joseph Roeworth was appointed an assistant to J. Reese Brewer, tax investigator for Fulton county.

Commissioners Walter B. Stewart, chairman; Edwin F. Johnson, newly-elected tax receiver for Fulton county, and Dr. W. L. Gilbert made up the quorum at the meeting in the absence through illness of George M. Hope and Paul Etheridge, who was out of the city.

PRE-EASTER TRADE OF MERCHANTS BRISK

achieving individuality while they keep pace with style demands. One result of this new freedom in dress has been to develop a greater interest in materials and patterns than has been noticed in some time past."

Accessories Important.

Herbert Everett, director of sales for the Chamberlain-Johnson-DuBois company, pointed to the growing popularity of accessories in women's dress as the chief point of pre-Easter shopping interest.

"Business with us has been good," he stated. "We are showing a very satisfactory increase in sales over last year, particularly in accessories, which are becoming more and more important in women's costumes. In gloves, hosiery, bags, shoes, scarfs, pins, hats, underwear, checkers and costume jewelry, tremendous strides are being made and wide popularity attained. These lines have assumed vital importance to women who wish to be smartly dressed, and the increase in demand reflects a growing desire to be correctly outfitted in every detail."

R. E. O'Donnell, general manager of the Keely company, pronounced business at this time brisker than that of the past year.

"Our business for the past thirty days," he stated, "has shown a gratifying increase, and pre-Easter trade with us is active."

Skirts to Be Longer.

One important disclosure with reference to the Easter and spring fashions is that skirts of formal dresses for women will be longer this year than last. E. P. Coffey, general manager of the J. P. Allen company, said there was a decided turn to lower skirts in afternoon, dinner and evening gowning, and that the skirts of the heel of the shoe in the back and coming just below the knee in front. In street and sports wear, he said, the correct skirt hangs just below the knee.

"With the first sign of real spring weather," Mr. Coffey said, "it seemed that all Atlanta and its neighbors throughout this shopping territory flocked in to get outfitted for Easter and spring festivities immediately following the Lenten season. With us business has been unusually good."

Green for Men.

A new note of green will glow in men's clothing of spring, men's outfitters said.

"The past few days of bright weather has put a severe strain on our store," Edgar Chambers, vice president of Parke-Chambers, Inc., said. "This is a rather usual thing at Easter, however, and we are prepared to take care of the rush. Light suits for men are in heavy demand, and for the first time in years green is coming back into its own in men's furnishings. In ties this year to green is particularly noticeable, and the smartly-dressed man will not fail to follow it."

W. N. Austin, of the house of Zachry, men's outfitters, also reported a new vogue for green in men's suits, with tan, gray and blue also popular.

LINDBERGH LANDS IN SAN DIEGO ON FLIGHT ACROSS U.S.

San Diego, Cal., April 4.—(P)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh arrived at Rockwell field here at 1:50 o'clock this afternoon after a flight from Santa Barbara.

At this point the caravan was ready to start across the hot sands under the degree team, with Director Asa W. Candler and Noble Leide Sheehee took charge.

Atlanta will resemble a host city for the gathering of an imperial procession of the Shrine the latter part of this month. Thousands of Shriner's journeying to Miami for the national convention May 1, 2 and 3 will stop over in Atlanta for a few hours or a day and will be the guests of Yaarab temple during their stay.

Illustrious Potentate Tom C. Law, Chief Rabbi W. A. Fuller, Assistant Rabbi R. N. Pickett, Jr., Recorder George E. Argard and Prophet De-said A. Cohen, general chairman of entertainment, have been busy recruiting an army to assist in entertaining these visitors. Post cards have been mailed to every member of Yaarab asking for volunteers for this service and a good number have already responded.

Sunday, April 23, will probably see the greatest number of Shrine visitors in Atlanta. Three temples, with their organizations on special trains, have definitely notified Yaarab officials of their intention to spend that Sunday in Atlanta. Al Malikah, of Los Angeles, will probably reach here that day and several others whose trains are routed this way are expected to stop over here that Sunday.

By the Official Disseminator of Sacred Bull.

Those advertisers of Atlanta who are accustomed to receiving calls on Thursday from Herbert Porter and "Dick" Hames, of The Constitution advertising staff, will please excuse them if they fail to call today, but if they do happen to call, do not offer them a seat and do not expect them to stand long.

The advertised pair, having been eligible to become members of the Mystic Shrine for some time, finally mustered up courage enough to try the journey across the hot sands to Miami for the national convention of the Shrine the latter part of this month.

Preeminent!

NEVER in all its 60 years has The Atlanta Constitution been in so dominant a position as it now occupies!

SEE THE A. B. C. AUDITORS' REPORTS

of the three Atlanta newspapers for complete verification of this claim

The Constitution has the largest home-delivered circulation of any daily newspaper in Atlanta.

It has the largest total city circulation of any daily newspaper in Atlanta.

It has the largest combined city and suburban circulation of any daily newspaper in Atlanta.

It has the largest TOTAL net paid circulation of any daily newspaper in Atlanta.

It has the largest total net paid circulation of any daily newspaper in the five Southeastern states!

Of infinitely greater importance to you as an advertiser, however, is the fact that The Constitution has Reader Confidence to a degree equalled by but few newspapers in the United States. People BELIEVE what they see in The Constitution—in the advertising as well as in the news columns. Having confidence in their newspaper, they have confidence in the merchandise advertised—and advertisers profit as a result!

The Constitution will give you an influential introduction to the largest number of people in this section who have money to spend that it is possible to reach through any medium. It will help make 1928 a banner year—put it to work!

MILLEDGEVILLE PAPER PURCHASED BY WOMAN

Milledgeville, Ga., April 4.—The sale of the Milledgeville Times, a weekly newspaper published here, was announced yesterday.

The newspaper and plant was purchased by Mrs. Mildred Wright Hair, secretary of the summer school at the Georgia State College for Women here, and will be edited by Dunbar Hair, who recently moved here from Atlanta. The Times was owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McCullar and has been edited since its establishment three years ago by Mrs. Bernice Brown McCullar, daughter of Rev. M. B. Brown, of Richland, Ga., former publisher of the Richland News and

Relief from Gas Stomach Pains Dizziness

The doctors tell us that 90 per cent of all sickness is due to stomach and bowel troubles. You can't be well if your digestion is bad; you are likely to get sick unless you eat and digest it properly. Tanlac has a wonderful record as a relief from digestive troubles, even those of years' standing.

Mr. Lee R. Bridges, of 904 North Lee St., Valdosta, Ga., says: "Nothing I ate did me any good. I noted a big change before the first bottle of Tanlac was gone. After two more, my work was so much easier I could hardly believe it!"

If you suffer from gas, pains in the stomach or bowels, dizziness, nausea, constipation or torpid liver; if you have no appetite, can't sleep and are nervous and all run down, you need Tanlac. It is good, pure medicine, made of roots, herbs and barks. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Money back if it doesn't help you.

3 ATLANTA PLANTS IN BIG ICE MERGER

The American Service company, a Maryland corporation, has just completed a merger of a large number of ice and cold storage properties located in the middle west, southwest and southeast. The properties included in the merger have a value in excess of $6,000,000, and included in the merger are the Fulton Ice company, the I. K. Lee company and the Crystal Ice company, of Atlanta. The local management of these companies will carry on as in the past, as their officials are financially interested in the larger company, it is stated. The object of the American Service company will be to provide all local companies involved with better facilities for serving the public. Improved equipment will be installed, and under conditions warrant, and improved service given the public, they add.

The American Service company, which will be the central management organization, will be headed by J. A. Gibson, of Kansas City, Mo., as vice president and general manager. Operating headquarters of the central organization will be at Kansas City, Mo., and district headquarters will be established at Atlanta and Houston, Texas.

Following are the properties included in the merger: D. S. Ryan Ice & Cold Storage company, Leavenworth, Kan.; Parsons Ice & Cold Storage company and City Ice and Fuel company, Parsons, Kan.; Clinton Ice & Cold Storage company, Clinton, Mo.; Iowa Ice and Cold Storage company, Iowa, Kan.; Neodesha Ice & Creamery company, Neodesha, Kan.; Yates Center Ice company, Yates Center, Kan.; Humboldt Ice company, Humboldt, Neb.; Nevada Cold Storage company, Nevada, Mo.; Fredonia Ice and Light company, Fredonia, Kan.; City Ice company and A. G. Jones company, Hot Springs, Ark.; Joplin Ice company, Joplin, Mo.; Standard Ice & Fuel company, Pittsburg, Kan.; Cardin, Pitcher and Quapaw Ice plants at Cardin, Pitcher and Quapaw, Okla.; O'Connor and Hamlin Ice company, Ft. Scott, Kan.; Fort Scott Ice Mfg. company, Ft. Scott, Kan.; Tri-City Plate Ice & Fuel company, Davenport, Iowa; Fulton Ice company, Ft. Keokuk, Iowa; Crescent and Crystal Ice company, Atlanta, Ga.; Diamond Ice company, Knoxville, Tenn.; Marshall Ice company, Houston, Texas; Goose Creek Ice company, Goose Creek, Texas; Pure Ice & Storage company, Goose Creek, Texas; Magnolia Ice & Cold Storage company, Galveston, Texas; Jossey Ice & Coal company, Beaumont, Texas.

The aggregate daily ice-making capacity of the above companies is 1,700 tons, with ice storage of 22,000 tons and cold storage capacity of 300,000 cubic feet. Total population served by these companies is over a million. The company plans to expand its activities further and will give the benefit of economies effected by the merger, its officials declare. It is planned to promote the sale of ice and refrigeration and show the home owner the benefits of proper refrigeration. Ice is an essential commodity and ice properties are in effect public utilities the same as water works or electric light properties. In view of the fact that the public has benefited by the consolidation of electric gas and water properties, it is felt that similar benefits will accrue to the ice-using public by consolidations of ice properties.

T. A. Knight will be the general manager in charge of the properties in this city and H. D. Brown will be assistant general manager.

MEYER RICH TELLS OF U.P.A. ECONOMY

Leaders of Atlanta Jewry who are devoting their time in behalf of the United Palestine Appeal, which this year has a national quota of $7,500,000, constitute one of the main factors in the economical operations characterizing U. P. A. activities, according to Meyer Rich, Atlanta business man and treasurer for the Atlanta campaign.

Mr. Rich's statement, made Wednesday, follows: "It is most gratifying to me as 1928 treasurer of the Atlanta U. P. A. campaign, and I know it will be equally welcome to those whose generosity has been harnessed in the cause, to learn of the economical basis on which funds are collected and transmitted to Palestine."

"While the very essence of this economy is due to the cooperation of volunteer workers, I witnessed each year when a large group of prominent Jews devote several weeks of their valuable time for planning the drive and canvassing, it is noteworthy to observe the efficiency maintained by the permanent organization."

Those who have taken part in campaigns of various sorts will appreciate the necessity of a permanent staff to serve as a nucleus in organizing local drives and in coordinating results. Without this backbone American efforts to aid Palestine would be a dismal failure.

"While it is of greatest importance to us to know that competent supervision in the agricultural development of Palestine is maintained at a gross overhead cost of only 10 per cent, including 2 per cent for distribution and 17 per cent for collection, yet we in Atlanta are more closely concerned with efficiency of our drives."

"To analyze the salient factors in the fiscal year audit of the last campaign we find the Atlanta U. P. A. office, which directs all Palestinian activities in seven southern states, operated on expenses of less than 12 per cent. Last year a total of $101,

BUGGERNAUT

SYNOPSIS

Roger Howe, a young nurse, having accompanied an invalid from the United States to Cannes on the Riviera, is about to return to New York when she sees an advertisement in the paper for a nurse and doctor's assistant and she decides to apply for the job in order to spend a little time in Cannes.

While waiting for an answer to her application to Dr. Sartorius, Roger treats herself to tea at the fashionable Restaurant des Ambassadeurs. She becomes interested in the conversation of a beautiful French woman and her escort, an Englishman, who sit at the next table. On returning to her hotel Roger finds a note from the doctor asking her to report in the morning.

The beautiful French woman of the restaurant comes to see Dr. Sartorius and Roger learns that she is Lady Clifford. A few days later her husband, Sir Charles Clifford, is stricken with typhoid fever and Dr. Sartorius gives up his practice and laboratory work to devote himself exclusively to Sir Charles. Roger is taken on the case as day nurse.

Roger Clifford, Sir Charles' only son, arrives in Cannes. Sir Charles tells his son that he has changed his will to the extent of making him executor and trustee of the whole estate. Roger is attracted to Roger and invites her to dine and dance with him.

On returning to the house Roger comes upon his stepmother in the darkened drawing room with Arthur Holiday, who has been paying Lady Clifford some attention. Roger orders Holiday to leave the house.

The next day Sir Charles breaks the news to his wife that he has named his son executor of his estate in his will. Lady Clifford files into a rage.

Shortly afterward completion of a headache, and his aunt, Miss Clifford, offers him one of her remedies. In trying to open the bottle Roger breaks it and cuts his head. Roger is called in to bind up the cut and in her haste she mislays the doctor's hypodermic needle, which he has just used on Sir Charles. The doctor is unwarrantably angry with her over this carelessness. Two days later Sir Charles dies. Roger finds the needle, but instead of returning it to the doctor she takes it to the chemist. The hypodermic needle contained typhoid germs. As she is about to warn Roger she is attacked and taken from the house unconscious. She awakes some time later in Dr. Sartorius' laboratory. Sartorius leaves Holiday to guard her while he returns to the Villa Firenze with his wife and goes to his room. Roger's nursemaid, Esther, manages to escape from the house through the skylight.

INSTALLMENT LVIII.

A DIRECT ANSWER.

The doctor's broad face, with its sloping, flattish forehead, betrayed little, if any, change of expression.

"You overreach yourself, Mr. Clifford. Your gross insinuation compels me to go at once to Lady Clifford and inform her that I cannot remain longer under the same roof with a person who has no professional training and no professional dignity."

He was moving away when Roger stopped him with a gesture.

"I am afraid in the light of what has recently happened I must ask it plain to you that you are not to hold any communication with Lady Clifford for the present. I must ask you to remain at the other end of this room until I give you leave to withdraw."

"May I ask by what authority you issue orders in this house?"

"I would prefer you didn't ask," retorted Roger with an unwavering gaze, "because the only answer is an extremely direct one."

As he spoke he slipped his right hand into his pocket with a movement there was no mistaking.

"This is intimidation, Mr. Clifford."

"You are at liberty to give it any name you like. The point is that only by doing as I say can you avoid at the moment a legal investigation."

A second or two elapsed while the doctor looked at him silently, evidently considering the matter. Then, without a word, he turned and walked heavily towards the fireplace, where he seated himself in the big armchair. At this precise moment Miss Clifford came back into the room with a basin of water and a towel. She glanced at the distant figure of the doctor with slight surprise, then at Roger as though scenting something amiss.

"He sent me to get these," she murmured uncertainly. "Is she coming around?"

"You shouldn't have let him come near her," he returned, shaking his head. "I thought you understood."

"Did I do wrong?" she whispered. "I didn't see how it could make any difference as long as the poor girl wasn't conscious, and I began to be frightened. Her pulse is so terribly weak!"

"We must get another doctor here as quickly as possible," announced Roger with decision. "Ring for Chalmers; he will attend to it, I don't care to leave the room."

"I'll telephone at once, sir," he said.

Miss Clifford glanced doubtfully at the inert form under the pink coverlet.

"I know what you're thinking," Roger said softly, putting his hand on her shoulder, "but I believe I am acting for the best. You must simply take my word for it."

A few minutes later, Chalmers, with an air of relief, announced:

"Dr. Bouquet, madame! Bonsoir, monsieur! I hope I have not kept you long? I came as quickly as I could. This is the patient, I suppose?"

He spoke in excellent English, and had a brisk and businesslike air. He was a small and dapper man with ginger hair cut en brosse, and red-brown eyes behind thick glasses. Setting down his bag on a chair, he cast a professional glance at the prostrate figure under the pink quilt, then running his eye over the room he discovered Dr. Sartorius. At once a look of puzzled recognition, tinged with defiance, came over his sharp little face.

"Ah, doctor, how do you do?" he greeted his colleague in a slightly diffident tone. "Am I to understand that . . . may I ask if I am intruding, or . . . ?" and he broke off, obviously uncertain as to the position of things.

Sartorius rose and stood stolidly beside his chair.

"Not at all, doctor," he replied coolly. "Mr. Clifford will no doubt explain why you are here. There appears to be a good reason."

Expectantly, the little man turned to Roger, who, seeing the necessity of some explanation to satisfy him on a point of professional etiquette, said quietly:

"This lady, doctor, is a nurse who has been employed in our family until my father's death a few days ago. After the funeral she left the house; then this evening she returned suddenly in a very strange and excited state. A few minutes after she entered the room here she became unconscious. The reason Dr. Sartorius does not attempt to do anything for her is that when he did try she became much worse. It seems that she has taken a marked antipathy for him, we don't know why."

"Ah, ah!" the Frenchman commented. "May I inquire if you had any knowledge of this antipathy before she went away?"

"I had," replied Sartorius heavily. "I mentioned the fact to Lady Clifford. I had begun to suspect at the last that she might be suffering from some rather obscure mental derangement."

"I see, I see! I daresay you have come to no conclusion as to her present state, doctor?"

"I have not had an adequate opportunity of judging."

"Yes, yes, I quite understand the difficulty you were placed in. Very annoying, very annoying! With your permission, then, I will try and see what it is all about."

During this polite interchange Roger had difficulty in restraining his impatience. It seemed possible that the doctor might perish while these two medical men discussed the situation. He watched tensely while the little doctor got out various instruments and bottles, changed his thick pince-nez for a pair of spectacles with tortoise shell rims exactly matching his eyebrows, and finally proceeded with a maddening deliberation to study the patient, listening at her heart, feeling her pulse, turning back her eyelids. At last he raised a grave face.

"How long has this condition lasted?" he asked, frowning.

"About twenty minutes, I should say."

The Frenchman pursed his lips and shook his head slightly as he proceeded with the examination. Roger grew more and more alarmed. Thinking to facilitate matters, he pointed out the holes in the coat sleeve.

"What do you make of these, doctor?" he demanded.

The bristling brows rose in astonishment.

"Ah, ah!" their owner exclaimed, sliding the two sleeves deftly off the shoulders and scrutinizing the red dots on the skin, round which a bruise was beginning to form. "Tens, Tens, this begins to be more clear. 'Doctor,' he said, turning to Sartorius, 'had you any suspicion that this young woman was addicted to the use of a drug?'"

"I admit I did not come to that conclusion during the time she was here," the doctor answered, "but her conduct at times might have suggested it. Those marks enlightened me."

In spite of his resolution to restrain himself, Roger took a step forward angrily.

"Do you mean to intimate that she gave herself those injections—through both sleeves?" he burst out.

Keith's Georgia.

The case with which the successful motion picture actor begins the day is shown in the daily morning "work-out" which Bert Lytell gives himself each morning. Appearing at Keith's Georgia this week, Bert Lytell fits himself for the day by taking a five-mile hike, after which he spends 30 minutes at brisk exercise in his room, followed by a shower and a rub-down. Few athletes spend more time conditioning themselves for their work than Bert Lytell.

Capitol.

With one of the outstanding stage bills of the current season, and by all odds the funniest picture seen here this year, the Capitol theater is presenting the ultimate in entertainment to its patrons this week. Headlining on the stage bill is Lillian Morton, dainty and personable comedienne of song, who has won all of her audiences. "Jimmie Rodgers and his band" this week present a miniature and condensed version of "Pretty Baby," the sensational musical comedy success. Other acts are Billy "Swoode" Hall and company, and the Hestons. Laura LaPlante is starred in "Thanks for the Buggy Ride" on the screen.

Loew's Grand.

One of the most artistic pictures ever offered in Atlanta is "Quality Street," the feature picture now appearing at Loew's Grand with Marion Davies and Conrad Nagel in leading roles. Along with "Quality Street" an excellent vaudeville bill is offered which is headed by Florence Hedges, musical comedy star. Other acts are Frank Sinclair and company, Frank Melino and company, the Three Golfers, and Lydia Harris, singing comedienne.

Howard.

Corinne Griffith, in "The Garden of Eden," Ray Teal presenting the Public stage show "Moonlit Waters," and the Muse-Howard Fashion Revue, constitute one of the best all-around performances seen at the Howard theater in many months. Corinne Griffith is seen to her best advantage in "The Garden of Eden." The picture is a romantic comedy of a modern Eve and her twentieth century Adam.

Metropolitan.

"The Lash" is the most outstanding of the Vitaphone presentations on the program at the Metropolitan. It is the first straight drama playlet offered at that theater with full Vitaphone accompaniment and the result is great. In addition to "The Lash" the Metropolitan also offers two other Vitaphone presentations, "In a Monastery Cellar" and "The Night Court," and also the feature attraction "If I Were Single," starring Conrad Nagel and May McAvoy.

Rialto.

A three-cornered romance in which a delicatessen store girl, a male dressmaker and a prizefighter form the angles. Each has a different idea of what constitutes love and two of them are wrong. You'll keep guessing who's right until the final fade-out in "So This Is Love," which features Shirley Mason and William Collier, Jr.

Alamo No. 2.

A new type of working girl is projected on the screen in "Classified," new First National offering starring Corinne Griffith, which is current at the Alamo No. 2 theater. She is the dullest voiced creature who takes your want ad over the phone.

Empire.

Who'll win the girl—the officer or the private? That's "Rookies," the uproarious comedy which appears today and Friday on the screen of the Empire theater, starring George K. Arthur, Karl Dane and Marceline Day. The orchestration, new and improved synchronization device, will provide musical accompaniment. Saturday brings "The Great Train Robbery" to the Empire.

Mrs. Locklin, who had made her home with a son, H. W. Locklin, at 414 Tenth street, had been in a state of despondency for several days due to failing health, according to members of the family.

Swimmers in Howard Revue Pay Visit to Black Rock Club

The weather may seem like summer, but the water doesn't feel that way, as this trio of beautiful young women found out in the Black Rock Country club pool. But anyway, they exhibited their bathing costumes, and that's what they're doing all this week at the Howard theater as part of the Muse-Howard fashion revue. Left to right, Miss Jewel Jones, Miss Frances Buren and Miss Jewel Lane. Below, Miss Lane, who is a city swimming instructor, is seen in the water.

James M. Cox, Jr., Sets Adjournment Of Police Charges

New York, April 4.—(AP)—James M. Cox, Jr., 24-year-old son of the former Governor of Ohio, was granted an adjournment today until Monday for hearing of charges of assault, leaving the scene of accident, and driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Young Cox, who is a Yale student, appeared in court without counsel today accompanied by a man attached said was his brother-in-law. After the adjournment they slipped out a side door to avoid photographers. Cox was arrested Saturday morning when he drew up at a hotel in the Grand Central district after a chase in which pursuing police had fired a score of shots. As he stepped from his car he fell and cut his forehead. The youth was charged with fleeing after his car had knocked down Peter Lorenzo, a laborer, at Twenty-ninth street and Fifth avenue. Lorenzo was only slightly injured. When Cox's brother, who is a Harvard student, heard of the arrest he started for New York but he too was arrested in New Haven charged with breach of the peace.

PIERCE ARROW
 Nearly everybody would like to own a Pierce-Arrow. Not everybody knows how easy it is to buy one—how inexpensive to maintain—how needless the postponement of Pierce-Arrow ownership, and the pride that goes with it!

TIMMS JEWELRY CO. IN NEW LOCATION

Hundreds of friends of the Timms Jewelry company, whose patronage in many instances has been enjoyed by the concern for 30 years, Wednesday called at the new Timms location at 42 Broad street, S. W., to congratulate officials upon the store's removal opening following its removal from 65 Broad street, S. W. The new location is directly across the street from Rich's and next to the Jacobs Pharmacy at Alabama and Broad streets.

In its new quarters the Timms Jewelry company not only is situated at the intersection of a network of important lines and, therefore, is convenient to a greater number of its patrons, but it also enjoys more commodious space and a magnificently appointed business home.

It has an imposing display floor on the ground level, extensive stockrooms in the basement for retail and wholesale supplies, and offices on the mezzanine. The handsome fixtures set off to advantage the magnificent stock of gems and metals in every line of the jeweler's craft, and the walls and ceiling are painted by hand by Athos Maniboni, well-known Italian artist.

In addition to carrying a comprehensive stock of high-grade merchandise, Brad Timms, manager of the company, stated Wednesday that—in keeping with a policy of developing skilled craftsmen inaugurated three years ago—the company employs the largest force of watch repairers and expert jewelers in the southeast. Mr. Timms takes great pride in the finished craftsmanship of his workers, and stated that C. E. Dodson, one of the most widely known authorities on watch-repairing in the south, still is with the company after 30 years of continuous service in its personnel.

Mr. Dodson learned his trade under the late William J. Timms, who founded the Timms Jewelry company in 1897. With $80 capital, he came to Atlanta from the mountains of north Georgia. A skilled watch-repairer, he opened a tiny shop at Fair and Peters streets, where for six years he enjoyed a constantly growing business.

In 1905 he moved to 4 West Alabama street and in 1906 opened a second store at 28 Whitehall street. So successful was the magnificent Whitehall street shop that in 1907 the Alabama street store was consolidated with it and the company, while still specializing in watch-repairing, built up a heavy wholesale trade in addition to its retail business.

In 1910 William J. Timms retired and was succeeded by his son, Brad Timms. In 1915 the younger Timms removed to 19 South Broad street, where the store enjoyed a profitable trade until 1922, when construction of the Rich store necessitated another move to 63 South Broad. In this location the company remained until its transfer Wednesday to 42 Broad street, S. W.

Sparta Institute Plans $75,000 Endowment Drive

A campaign to raise $75,000 as an endowment fund for the Sparta Agricultural and Industrial Institute, Inc., a school for negro children, as a memorial to former slaves, has recently been inaugurated by those in charge of the school, Linton Stephens Ingraham, principal, arrived in Atlanta Wednesday to seek funds here. Ingraham states that he expects to raise the $75,000 endowment fund within six months from contributions chiefly from southern people.

Ingraham is a former slave and was owned by the brother of Alexander Hamilton Stephens. The latter educated him and told him to spread the doctrine of education among his people as Stephens believed this to be the only solution for the new race problems created by the freeing of the slaves. Seventeen years ago, remembering Stephens' injunction, Ingraham sold the home for which he and his wife had made many sacrifices, and established the Sparta school on three acres of land in a small frame building. Today, as a result of the foresight, vision and unceasing toil of Ingraham and his workers, the school has three buildings and 53 acres of land. It has 200 students and the prospects are that the number will be greatly increased next year. It is to take care of this increase and to continue its present work that Ingraham is asking for the $75,000 endowment fund.

The work of the Sparta Agricultural and Industrial institute has been endorsed by former Governor Clifford Walker, the late S. G. McLenon, former secretary of state; C. W. Moran, county superintendent of schools, Sparta, and by numerous other well-known persons.

W. T. Anderson, editor and publisher of the Macon Telegraph, has not only endorsed Ingraham's work but also has consented to serve as chairman of the fund's committee. Donations may be mailed either to Mr. Anderson at Macon, Ga., or to Linton S. Ingraham, principal, Sparta, Ga. Checks should be made payable to the Sparta Agricultural and Industrial Institute, Inc.

Singers' Convention.

The state union singers will hold their twelfth semi-annual singing convention at the Mount Vernon church beginning on the night of April 6 and continuing with sessions on April 6, 8 and 28. It was announced Wednesday by A. G. Taylor, president of the association.

MOTION PICTURE IS SENT BY WIRE

Chicago, April 4.—(AP)—An advance in the transmission of pictures by wire was made today when for the first time a motion picture was sent over telephone lines to New York city for display there.

A closeup of Vilma Banky, motion picture star, was taken in the telephone offices of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, and within half an hour the film had been developed and was being transmitted over the wires. Ten feet of film were used. The film was cut into short strips and sent as "stills," or ordinary pictures. At the other end of the line the strips were pieced together and then photographed on a regular motion picture film. Officials of the company said the entire process would take about four hours from the time the picture was taken here until it was ready for showing at New York city. This form of transmission, it was explained, could be used for movies of news events. Miss Banky was on her way to Los Angeles with her husband, Rod La Roque.

No Dandruff

Protect Children

Children usually come home from school with a case of dandruff that may lead to baldness. They get it from contact with others; promiscuous use of combs, brushes and wash basins. Examine scalps often and, at the first sign of dandruff, douse on Listerine. Full strength. Keep it up systematically for several days. To your delight, you will find that dandruff has disappeared and that little scalps are clean, sweet and healthy. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

Magnolia Gardens Is Mecca For Atlantans This Week

Magnolia Gardens, 12 miles from the historic city of Charleston, S. C., is the mecca for several hundred Atlantans this week. Each day a cavalcade of motor cars augmented by trainloads of people leaves the Gate City for a visit to this veritable paradise of colorful blooms that have reached their height of beauty this summer. The Magnolia Gardens are universally conceded to be the most beautiful in the world and are a sight worth traveling many miles to see. Among those who left Wednesday for a visit to the magnificent gardens were Mrs. W. W. Memminger, Miss Suzanne Memminger, Miss Eleanor Memminger, Mrs. Allen M. Schoen, Mr. and Mrs. Rix Stafford, Mrs. Harry English, Mrs. Fannie B. Wright, Mrs. Ella Carter and Mrs. Ben Conyers. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howell, Miss Colette Howell and her guest, Miss Jean MacLachlan, of Havana, Cuba, leave Friday for a few days' visit to the gardens.

Other prominent Atlantans who will visit Magnolia this week-end include Mrs. George Crandall, Mrs. Ernest Daly, Mrs. Charles Sciple, Mrs. Marion Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Wimberly Peters, Miss Mabel Robson, Mrs. Robert Crumley, Miss Caroline Crumley, Mrs. John B. Fitts, Mrs. H. Flowers, Miss Caroline Cooper, Mrs. M. F. Morris, Miss Katherine Blackley, Miss Margaret Culbertson, Mrs. M. B. Beckham, Miss Cecil Beckham, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Settle, Misses Lucile and Barbara Settles, Misses Genevieve and Margaret Saunders.

Memorial Services For War Heroes.

Memorial services for the heroes of Fulton county who gave their lives during the world war will be held at Pershing Point, at the junction of Peachtree and West Peachtree streets, at the Peachtree Christian church, Friday afternoon, April 6, at 3 o'clock. These services are held annually by the chapters of Service Star Legion, an organization of the women relatives of those who served in the late war, and who placed this memorial at Pershing Point in memory of these brave heroes.

The services are held April 6, of this year, to commemorate the day of America's entrance in the world war. All members of Service Star Legion, all patriotic organizations and the public at large are invited to this memorial service.

Dr. Samuel T. Senter, pastor of the First Methodist church, will make a short memorial address. The gold star mothers and all relatives of those whose names are on the tablet will be the special honor guests.

Missionary Group Is Entertained.

Mrs. C. R. Beacham, president of the Woman's Missionary society of Payne Memorial, entertained the executive board and circle chairmen Friday morning at her home on Thirteenth street. Officers and chairmen made reports. After the business meeting luncheon was served by the hostess.

Second Baptist Choir Easter Musical.

Announcement is made of the Easter twilight musicale to be given Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Second Baptist church by the choir including Solon Drukenmiller, tenor and director; Miss Minna Hecker, soprano; Mrs. G. E. Cooper, alto; Mrs. Stephen Banta, organist; and Raymond Nixon, bass. A cordial invitation is extended the public to attend the musicale.

Miss Gladys Welch Weds Robert Earle King.

The marriage of Miss Gladys Welch and Robert Earle King, formerly of Seattle, Wash., was solemnized at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, March 31, at the Peachtree Christian church. The ceremony was performed by Dr. L. O. Bricker in the presence of relatives and close friends.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Irene Wray, who was becomingly gowned in an ensemble of gray and blue. She wore a shoulder corsage of pink roses and sweetpeas. Mr. King had as his best man Carl Rinker, of Washington, D. C. The bride was lovely in a tan crepe ensemble fashioned along simple lines. Her hat was a small model of natural-colored ballantine. A shoulder spray of white roses and valley lilies completed her effective costume.

Mrs. King is the only daughter of Mrs. Lucy L. Welch and the late Theodore Whitfield Welch. Mr. King is the oldest son of Mrs. Sadie King and the late Chauncey L. King, of Astoria, Wash.

Mr. King and his bride left for a short wedding trip to Charleston, S. C., and upon their return will reside with the bride's mother.

Mrs. Abbott Honors Son's Birthday.

Miss Boehm Becomes Bride Of Mr. Mohr at Home Ceremony

Miss Marian Boehm became the bride of Samuel Mohr, of Montgomery, Ala., at a beautiful ceremony solemnized at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian V. Boehm, on Myrtle street. The marriage service was read by Rabbi David Marx and witnessed by a group of intimate friends and the members of the family connection.

The reception apartments of the home were charmingly decorated for the occasion with rich green palms, foliage plants and ferns which were interspersed with gorgeous baskets of purple and yellow tulips, jonquils, anemones and lilies, the lovely color scheme of lavender and yellow being attractively carried out in every detail. The striking beauty of the bride was emphasized by her handsome gown of beige point d'esprit lace modestly fashioned and exquisitely becoming to her tall, slender figure. Her flowers were a gorgeous bouquet of perma violets and valley lilies.

Miss Verdie Hendrix Is Honor Guest.

Mrs. Charles Cupin Peek entertained Saturday at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Los Angeles avenue, in honor of Miss Verdie Hendrix, whose marriage to Dr. Warner Lee Thompson will be solemnized April 10. Several contests were enjoyed, and prizes were won by Miss Mary Jane Gantt, Mrs. Foster B. McConnell, Mrs. Harvey Kincaid, Mrs. W. D. Smith and Mrs. John G. Westmoreland. The gifts were presented to the bride-elect in the form of a "treasure hunt."

The guests included Miss Verdie Hendrix, Miss Miriam Johnston, Miss Dorothy Johnston, Miss Ruth Blackwood, Miss May Belle Prichard, Miss Eva Williamson, Miss Leahon Fair, Miss Evelyn Cobb, Miss Margaret Saussure, Miss Clara Van Houten, Miss Rebecca Rowe, Miss Annie Gilbert, Miss Evelyn Quicker, Miss Maggie Tolar, Miss Lucille Regale, Miss Ellen Keener, Miss Rae Fowler, Miss Mary Jane Gantt, Mrs. R. A. Johnson, Mrs. John G. Westmoreland, Mrs. Agnes Jackson, Mrs. E. M. Cheek, Mrs. E. L. Johnston, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. Pearl Moran, Mrs. Lewis Bush, Mrs. H. J. LeRoy, Mrs.

ing to her tall, slender figure. Her flowers were a gorgeous bouquet of perma violets and valley lilies. There were no attendants. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at which the families and out-of-town guests were entertained.

Mrs. Boehm, mother of the bride, was a handsome woman of black lace. After a wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Mohr will make their home in Meridian, Miss.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lieberman and Frank Lieberman, Jr., of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Kaufman, of New York; Miss Rosalie Sommers, of New York; Michael Mohr and Jacob Mohr, of Montgomery, brothers of the groom.

F. B. McConnell, Mrs. J. G. Westmoreland, Mrs. George Young, Mrs. Judson Stanley, Mrs. Harvey Kincaid.

Now You Can Reduce 2 to 4 Lbs. in a Night

Eat what you please
Wear what you please
Do what you please
Take no risky medicine

Thousand of smart women have found this easy way to take off 2 to 4 pounds once or twice a week. These women take refreshing Fayro baths in the privacy of their own homes. Fayro is the concentrate of the same natural mineral salts that make effective the waters of twenty-two hot springs of America, England and Continental Europe. For years the spas and hot springs bathing resorts have been the retreat of fair women and well-groomed men.

Excess weight has been removed, skins have been made more lovely, bodies more shapely and minds brighter.

The Hot Springs Are Now Brought to You

Painstaking analyses of the active ingredients of the water from twenty-two of the most famous springs have taught us the secret of their effectiveness. You can now have all these benefits in your own bath. Merely put Fayro into your hot bath. It dissolves rapidly. You will notice and enjoy the pungent fragrance of its balsam oils and clean salts.

Then, by opening your pores and stimulating perspiration forces lazy body cells to sweat out surplus fat and bodily poisons. Add Fayro to your bath at night and immediately you will lose from 2 to 4 pounds in an easy, refreshing and absolutely harmless manner.

Your physician will tell you that Fayro is certain to do the work and that it is absolutely harmless.

Fayro will refresh you and help your body throw off worn-out fat and bodily poisons. Your skin will be clearer and more beautiful. You will sleep better after your Fayro bath and awaken feeling as though you had enjoyed a week's vacation.

Lose Weight Where You Most Want To

Fayro reduces weight generally, but you can also concentrate its effect on abdomen, hips, legs, ankles, chin or any part of the body you may wish.

Results Are Immediate

Weigh yourself before and after your Fayro bath. You will find you have lost from 2 to 4 pounds. And a few nights later when you again add Fayro to your bath, you will once more reduce your weight. Soon you will be the correct weight for your height. No need to deny yourself food you really want. No need for violent exercise. No need for drugs or medicines. Merely a refreshing Fayro bath in the privacy of your own home.

Try Fayro at Our Risk

The price of Fayro is $1.00 a package. Inside each package you get an interesting booklet, "Health and Open Pores."

For Sale at All Druggists

HERE'S PROOF

Read what Fayro Baths have done for others:

"Three Fayro baths reduced my weight 11 pounds in 8 days. I feel better than I have felt for years."

"I weigh 16 pounds less and feel younger and sleep better. Fayro is wonderful."

"My double chin vanished in the magic of Fayro baths."

"My hips were always too prominent until I commenced Fayro baths. I have lost 12 pounds."

"Thank you for Fayro. I lost 14 pounds in three weeks; feel better and certainly look better."

"Since childhood my thick ankles have always been a source of embarrassment. Fayro baths have reduced them beautifully. Thank you very much."

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

MORE ABOUT BANANA BILL.
Of what you have just made the best,
And leave to other folk the rest.
Banana Bill.

It was two days before Bobby Coon again saw Scrapper the Kingbird. At least, he didn't see him to talk. Scrapper had decided where their new nest was to be built and she expected Scrapper to help in the hunt for good nesting material. What Mrs. Scrapper expects from Scrapper she usually gets. So Bobby Coon's curiosity remained unsatisfied.

But on the third day Scrapper flew over where Bobby was. He was out of sight of Mrs. Scrapper there and he decided that both the time and the place were good for a rest. At first, he didn't see Bobby Coon. It wasn't until Bobby spoke that Scrapper discovered him.

"About that fellow you call Banana Bill, what is the color of his coat?" asked Bobby.

"Well," began Scrapper, "his coat is mostly black. Yes, sir, it is mostly black. His tail is short and that is black. Above, at the beginning of the tail, is a big white spot. Beneath is a blood-red spot. His neck is bright yellow. It's just as yellow as a sunflower. Around his eyes and throat there are no feathers and the skin is green. Then, when you add that big bill of his, he makes quite a sight in the sun."

"But," protested Bobby, "you have not told me what color his bill is. Is it black or yellow?"

"It is yellowish-green, or greenish-yellow, all streaked with other colors," declared Scrapper.

"That's all very well," said Bobby, "but you haven't given me any idea at all how big he is. He might have all those colors and still be a little bit of a fellow."

"You're wrong," declared Scrapper. "Haven't I already told you that he has a great big bill—one of the biggest bills I know of? How could he be a little fellow with such a big bill?"

"You're wrong," declared Scrapper. "Haven't I already told you that he has a great big bill—one of the biggest bills I know of? How could he be a little fellow with such a big bill?"

bill? He couldn't and he isn't. He's a little bigger than Creaker the Grackle, and smaller than Blucky the Crow. His tail is rather short and that makes his look funny, for he has more bill than tail."

"Does he walk around?" inquired Bobby.

"Not that I've ever heard of," replied Scrapper. "He may go down on the ground, but I've never seen him do it. He is a bird of the trees. He loves to sit way up in the top of a tree and take a sunbath. Yes, sir, he does so. And he builds his nest in a hole in a tree. I found that out by accident."

"How was that?" inquired Bobby.

"Well," said Scrapper, "I just happened to be sitting in a certain tree down there when I noticed a hole in the trunk of another tree. I was won-

St. Mark's Circle Sponsors Egg Hunt.

Circle No. 14, of Women's Missionary society, St. Mark church, will sponsor an Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon, April 7, at 3 o'clock in McClatchey park. Many valuable prizes will be given away. A lovely Easter bunny will be given to the child who finds the golden egg.

dering about that 'ole when who should come along but Mrs. Banana Bill. She looked all around, but didn't see me. Evidently she thought there wasn't anybody there, for all of a sudden she popped right into that hole. I was so surprised I nearly fell off of my perch. Somehow, I hadn't thought of her as nesting in a hole in a tree. She didn't look like that kind of a person. I sat around a long time, but she didn't come back. Then I saw old 'Banana Bill' himself. He looked as if he were keeping guard. I asked him if that was his home and he finally admitted that it was. There's one thing sure, and that is, somebody else has to make the hole. That big bill was never intended for cutting wood. There's Mrs. Scrapper calling me and I can't talk any longer. If you've got any more questions to ask, why don't you try Boomer the Nighthawk? He's been down there."

Lose Fat in an easier way

Don't over-exercise—correct the cause

Some can reduce by starvation or abnormal exercise but the way is long and hard. Not one in ten of the over-fat has the patience to continue. And even then the best efforts may fail unless the inner cause is corrected. Over twenty years ago scientific men discovered a great cause of excess fat. They found a substance which Nature employs to turn food into fuel and energy rather than into fat. They proved that an extra supply of that substance could check the formation of fat. That substance was embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for two decades—millions of boxes of them. Now you can see in almost every circle how much they have done for beauty, health, and vitality. Doubtless some of your friends can tell you. Slenderness prevails today, fat is the exception.

The use of Marmola requires no abnormal exercise or diet though moderation helps. Users simply take four tablets daily until the weight comes down to normal. They combat the cause. Try the help which has done so much for so many. You owe that to yourself. You cannot afford to stay over-fat when reduction is so easy and so pleasant. Watch the results, then tell your friends, as people have for 20 years been doing. All your life you will be glad that you know Marmola. Go order now. Marmola prescription tablets are sold by all druggists at 44¢ per box. If your druggist is out, he will get it for you from his jobber.

National President Of Legion Auxiliary Visits Atlanta

Mrs. Irene McIntyre Walbridge, national president of the American Legion auxiliary, will be the guest of honor at a tea given by the Atlanta unit No. 1 of the Legion Auxiliary at the Red Cross hut, veteran hospital No. 48, Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Arthur Hazard, president of the Atlanta organization, has issued invitations to all auxiliary and legion members as well as their families to be present to meet the distinguished visitor. Mrs. Walbridge's visit to Atlanta is a part of her program of a national tour, visiting the various posts of the auxiliary throughout the country. She will leave here Thursday night to be the guest of the Birmingham post Friday.

Known as one of the outstanding figures among American women who saw service overseas during the late war, Mrs. Walbridge served a year and one-half with the American forces overseas under the auspices of the Salvation Army. With her sister she established and maintained huts within the lines, serving on four fronts with a number of different combat divisions. For 256 days under enemy fire she was twice gassed and twice received the unusual distinction of a personal citation in army orders.

Early in life Mrs. Walbridge was introduced to hardships and service. The daughter of a Salvation Army officer, her early childhood was spent in the far north, where her father was engaged in welfare service on the Labrador Banks. While still a child that service work took her with her family to California, and later to New York and New England. Her father, Commissioner William McIntyre, gained wide distinction as a Salvation Army leader and now has the work of the organization in 17 southern states under his charge.

Mrs. Walbridge's education was received in schools in New York and Massachusetts, she being graduated in 1913 from Mount Holyoke college. After the war she married Robert Walbridge, of Peterborough, N. H., an officer of the 26th division. Since the war her best energies have continued to be directed in the interest of the ex-service men through the American Legion auxiliary, both as unit and department officer. She served as president of the New Hampshire department and as national executive committee woman from New Hampshire. At the national convention of the auxiliary in Paris in 1927, she was elected to the office of national president.

Alpha Delta Pi Plans Series of Spring Functions

At a meeting of the Atlanta Alumnae club of Alpha Delta Pi held Tuesday at the Atlanta Athletic club, plans were made for a series of spring social functions that will reach a climax on May 5 at the annual Founders' day banquet at the Biltmore hotel.

The spring parties will begin during the week of grand opera, with an opera tea to be given at the Biltmore hotel, the exact date to be announced later. Dozens of sorority members from all parts of the south are expected here for opera, and will be invited to the opera tea.

The annual Pan-Hellenic tea, attended by members of all the Greek letter alumnae groups in Atlanta, will be held at the Druid Hills Golf club on April 20, at 3 o'clock.

The next brilliant social event of the season will take place May 5 when the Atlanta alumnae will unite with the Lambda chapter of Alpha Delta Pi of Brenau college at the Founders' day banquet at the Biltmore hotel.

Miss Pauline Trimble, a national officer of Alpha Delta Pi, who has recently opened a summer camp for girls and business women near Fairborn, invited the club to a bridge luncheon in honor of all its members to be given at Camp Co-Weeta on June 2.

Reservations for the opera tea should be made with Mrs. McDonald Brittain, 204 North avenue, N. W., Hemlock 2651. Reservations for the Pan-Hellenic tea should be made with Mrs. Tremble's bridge luncheon should be made with Mrs. Martha Bigham, Hemlock 4198-J.

Before Baby Comes

OF all the vital adventures in life the birth of a baby is Nature's most wonderful evolution.

After a period of anxious expectancy, through months of patience and fortitude, the hour finally arrives for the advent of a new life. During this period of evolution, Nature is supposed to be preparing the internal organism of a woman for a safe and speedy delivery; but it is more the exception than the rule when Nature, unaided during this period, performs her part at the delivery in a manner to relieve pain and contribute to comfort.

Mother's Friend is a comfort to expectant mothers. Externally applied it relieves prenatal distress by relaxing tight tissues and muscles. And it is so soothing. Its daily use makes the skin soft and pliable.

"I, too, want to praise Mother's Friend," writes Mrs. J. P. Howard, 123 S. Fifth St., Richmond, Va. "I was sick only two hours before my baby was born. He weighed 8½ pounds.

Round of Gaieties Are Enjoyed At Fort McPherson

Fort McPherson, April 4.—One of the loveliest parties of the month was the bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. Nelson Myll at her quarters Wednesday in compliment to Mrs. A. C. Vienna Advances in National Basketball Tournament

'Wonder Quint' Beats Yankton Five, 42-21

Georgians Outplay Rivals To Win Their First Game of Tourney.

Chicago, April 4.—(P)—Vienna, Ga., ranking pre-tournament favorite to win the national high school basketball title, tonight easily disposed of Yankton, S. D., 42 to 21, in its first game in the University of Chicago interscholastic tournament.

The twice cotton states champions ran wild in the first quarter, piling up a score of 20 to 1. With the crowd yelling for a new high school scoring record, the Georgians began to tire, while Yankton, state champions, began to find the basket occasionally. The half ended 25 to 5.

Outplayed.
In the third quarter, Smith and Binder got in some good work and the Dakota lads outplayed the southerners. The period ended 32 to 15.

The fourth period saw frequent substitutions by Vienna, with the result that the southerners again had the advantage.

Horne, sharpshooting forward, led the favorites in scoring with five field goals and three free throws. Waters was close behind with five goals from the field and one free throw. Binder, Smith, divided scoring honors for Yankton, scoring three field goals, but the latter counted three free throws to one for the former.

In the best exhibition of basketball thus far seen at the tournament, Tulsa, Okla., eliminated Winfield, Kansas, 29 to 19, in a second round game.

Bristol, Conn., the only remaining eastern team in the tournament, won a defensive battle from Pine Bluff, Ark., 14 to 13.

Bristol had a slight advantage until the first few minutes of the last period, when John Smith, Pine Bluff guard, tied the score at 13 all with a long shot.

More Southerners Win.
The south qualified two more teams for the third round, when Mize, a Mississippi hamlet that map-makers forgot, and Ashland, Ky., conquerors of Carr Creek in four overtime periods at the state tournament, won their opening contests. Both teams drew byes in the first round.

Mize, without exhibiting much in the way of basketball, managed to nose out one of the few remaining eastern teams, South Portland, Me., 28 to 19. Ashland took the measure of the Nantuxuck, Conn., five, 20 to 13, in one of the upsets of the tournament. Nantuxuck, winner of the Atlantic Seaboard tournament, was a favorite. Oregon, Mo., eliminated Spartanburg, S. C., 26 to 13, and Grant Forks, N. D., put Wilmington, N. C., out of the running, 33 to 17 in a whirlwind last quarter finish.

Five mountaineer basketball players from the hamlet of Carr Creek, Ky., tonight placed themselves in the running for the national interscholastic basketball championship by defeating the giant Austin, Texas, team, 25 to 18, in the second round of the University of Chicago's tournament. All players on the Kentucky team are related.

Smooth Playing.
Led by Shelby Stamper's steady floor work and dead eye for the basket, the Kentuckians showed perfect coordination in working the ball through the cowboys' highly touted defense.

The rangy Texas champions had previously been favorites to place high in the tourney.

Carr Creek overcame the Texans' early 5-to-1 lead and mounted steadily from the 7-to-5 advantage they held at the end of the first period, to hold the edge on Austin with an 11-to-9 count at the half.

CRUICKSHANK LEADS FIELD AT RICHMOND

Richmond, Va., April 4.—(P)—Bobby Cruickshank, the "Wee Scot" from Purchase, N. Y., took the lead at the half-way mark of the Richmond and open golf tournament today, finishing with a 72-70-142 total score, one stroke ahead of "Wild Bill" Melhorn, of Pittsburgh, who set a new course record of 69, two under par, for 143.

Clarence Hackney, of Atlantic City, and Anthony Longo, Mount Vernon, N. Y., were tied for third place with 140, while fourth place was claimed by four golfers, Tony Manero, of New York; Roland Hancock, of Wilmington, N. C.; Emmett French, of Southern Pines, N. C., and Al Espinosa, of Chicago, each with 147.

Slips Badly.
Joe Kirkwood, the former Australian trick shot and now Albany, Ga., professional, slipped badly today after his 70 of yesterday, finishing with 70-78-148. Alex Armour, of Washington, brother of the national open champion, who was tied with Kirkwood, also had a bad day to finish behind Kirkwood with a 70-79-149.

Johnny Farrell, the heavy winner of 1927 winter tournaments, added a 74 to his 78 of yesterday to give him 152, 11 strokes behind Cruickshank, and in a tie with Henry Culi and Dave Hackney, of Lawrence, Mass.

The cards of the leaders:

Far out 445 344 344-38
Cruickshank 435 344 344-38
Melhorn out 445 344 344-37

Cruickshank in 435 344 344-34
Melhorn in 435 344 344-32

SAVE FORESTS, IZAAK WALTON LEAGUE URGES

Macon, Ga., April 4.—(P)—Following a meeting with other state officers here tonight, E. D. Rivers, Lakeland, Ga., president of the Izaak Walton League of Georgia, announced preservation of forests as the chief objective of the league for the coming 12 months.

This program will be carried out in conjunction with the State College of Agriculture through its county agents. The check of forest fires was held to be the greatest need in game conservation.

W. T. Anderson was appointed delegate to attend the national meeting in Omaha this spring. H. N. Mitchell, Macon president, opened the discussion. Others present included: L. L. Woodard, Vienna; Roy Harris, Louisville; Boyd Sloan, Gainesville, and D. M. Bird, Atlanta.

Carlson To Join Cubs.
Chicago, April 4.—(P)—The pennant hopes of the Chicago Cubs were strengthened tonight when President Veeck announced Hal Carlson, veteran pitcher, would join the club in Kansas City Monday. Carlson was sent home from the west coast when he was threatened with pneumonia.

Walker, Hudkins Meet.
Chicago, April 4.—(P)—Jack Kearns, manager of Mickey Walker, came to terms with Jim Mulen today for the world's middleweight champion to engage Ace Hudkins in a title contest here July 19. Kearns and Walker left for New York where Kearns' suit against Jack Dempsey comes up in federal court April 16.

Player Injured.
Mobile, Ala., April 4.—(P)—B. E. Irwin, an outfielder known to the game as "Babe" and whose home is in St. Augustine, Fla., suffered a fracture of the left leg while at practice this afternoon. The injury will keep Irwin out of the game for several months. He was with St. Augustine team last year.

Miss Collett Is Eliminated At Pinehurst

Mrs. Hill Beats Favorite on Last Hole in North-South Meet.

Pinehurst, N. C., April 4.—(P)—Carelessness and superior golf today made the finals match of the United North and South golf tournament tomorrow a midwest affair and definitely determined that there will be a new champion this year.

There were two surprises in the semi-final matches. Miss Glenna Collett, last year's champion, and a former national titleholder, went down to defeat on the eighteenth hole to Mrs. O. Hill, of Kansas City. Then Miss Marjorie O'Connell, metropolitan champion, became careless on the nineteenth hole and dubbed a 14-inch putt that would have halved the hole and Miss Virginia Van Wie, of Chicago, won, one up.

Leads.
Mrs. Hill, a former trans-Mississippi champion, went through the first nine with Miss Collett in the lead. She was two down at the turn but picked up a hole on the tenth with a par four and evened it on the twelfth when Miss Collett hooked into the woods.

Miss Collett went one up again at the fourteenth, a 138-yard water hole, playing from a trap for par three. At the fifteenth Mrs. Hill was safe in the fairway while Miss Collett was bunkered on her second and par four evened the match. Mrs. Hill drove the green on the 213-yard sixteenth and Miss Collett was over, flubbed her shot in the sand and was one down.

The seventeenth went to Miss Collett when she played the 523-yard hole in par five, but at the home hole Mrs. Hill sank her four-foot putt for a four while Miss Collett was over and took five.

Their cards:
Miss Collett, out 455 443 354-40
In 446 435 435-43-43
Mrs. Hill, out 445 444 444-45
In 445 444 444-45-45

Battle Royal.
The Van Wie-O'Connell match was a battle royal. Miss Van Wie took three out of the first four holes and was three up, but the metropolitan champion came back and wiped out the lead at the end of the eighth. Miss Van Wie sank the tenth and eleventh and was two up but by the fourteenth Miss O'Connell had evened it again.

At the eighteenth, with all even, both dropped long putts for halves and on the green at the nineteenth were all even with the match due, to all indications, to go at least 20 holes.

Then a miracle occurred. Miss O'Connell with an easy 14-inch putt stepped up to it, did not bother to steady herself and hit the ball. It rolled by and the Chicago girl had won.

WEISMULLER WINS EVENT AT CHICAGO

Chicago, April 4.—(P)—The "Human Fish," Johnny Weissmuller, of the Illinois Athletic club, retained his 100-yard free style indoor swimming title at the national A. A. U. championships tonight, defeating his nearest rival, Walter Lauffer, of the Lake Shore A. C., Chicago, by two yards. His time was 1:50.8, one second slower than his record. Paul Samson, also of the I. A. C., was third and George Kojac, of the New York Athletic club, fourth.

Weissmuller and Lauffer fought on even terms for the first three laps, but Johnny's superior stroke pulled him to victory in the final lap.

The Illinois A. C. relay team shattered its third indoor world's record in two nights by holding its national title in the 200-yard medley event. The time was 3:02.6. The old mark held by the I. A. C. team was 3:06.2.

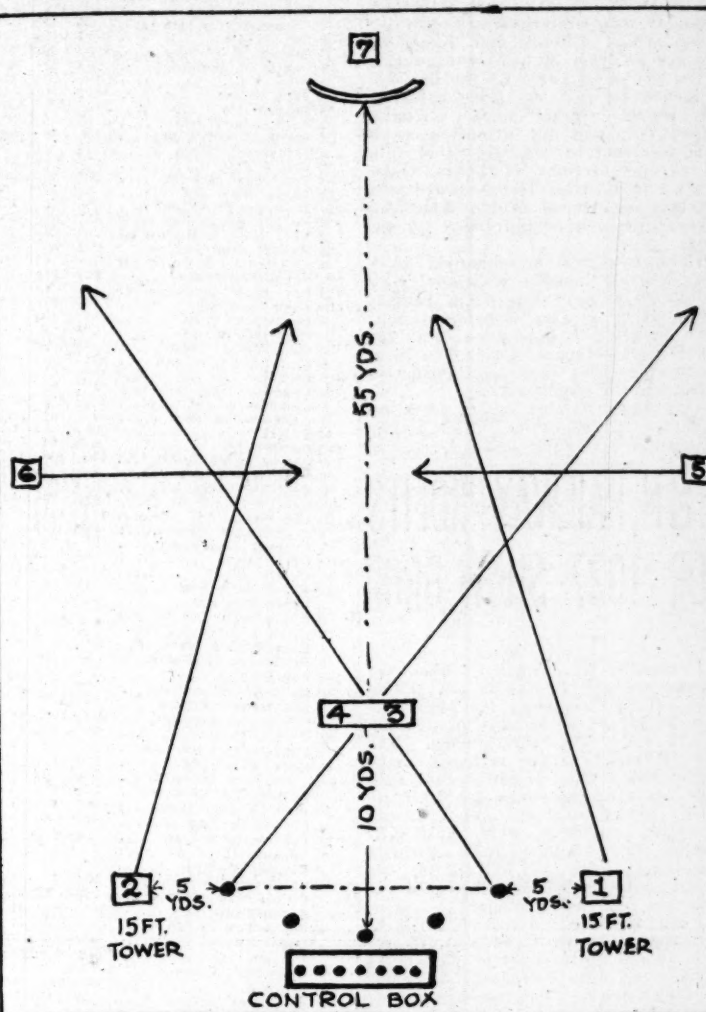

The New York A. C. was second and the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A. was third.

The members of the I. A. C. team are Weissmuller, Richard, Peterson and Samson.

HAWK-EYE-ING SPORTS

BY DICK HAWKINS.
The "Whiz."

The Peachtree Gun club has virtually completed its new system of traps for the edification of the gentlemen and ladies who claim they "can hit 'em in the field better than they can at the traps." The new system, known as the "Whiz" traps, is the only one of its type in the world. Saturday week the club shooters will engage in the first "world's championship" match.

The layout as originally planned and laid out was not satisfactory in some minor respects and it has been completely changed. The diagram attached hereto will show roughly the system in use, and it doesn't take a very discerning individual to visualize a lot of fun and considerable grief to the shooters who tackle this trick.

The way the traps are placed and the firing system is organized the new set of traps will more nearly approximate field shooting than any other in existence, according to experts who have seen many field layouts. The five shooters at their posts will hold their guns at rest when the firing starts. As soon as the first man is ready the pulling begins and from then on until the 25 shots are fired no shooter will call pull and no shooter will know from which trap his target is coming.

The traps are controlled from an electric switchboard back of the firing posts and in order to make it possible for loaders to do their work efficiently the traps will be fired in series but never twice consecutively in the same order. The puller at the keyboard will have score sheets made up with the order of traps but all sheets will have a different order and no shooter could possibly tell where his next bird is coming from.

The two side traps throw "doves," while the traps directly in front of the firing posts toss "quail," and the side traps and the head-on trap throw targets after the fashion of flight of ducks, doves or quail.

It is the belief of Harold McKenzie, president of the Peachtree club and inventor of the system, that a man who shoots better than 80 per cent on the new system will be doing well enough to win.

Tickets for First Game Going Fast

Judging from the advance sale up until Wednesday night, more than several people will be on hand Thursday, April 12, which is next week—when Atlanta's Crakers open the 1928 home season against, of course, the Chattanooga Lookouts.

Reports at Spiller's Wednesday were to the effect that a large number of tickets had been sold and that those remaining were going fast. Tickets for opening day are on sale at Stuart Murray's, Peachtree and Ellis; Peachtree Arcade information booth, and at the ball park.

President To Throw First Ball of Season

Washington, April 4.—(United News.)—President Coolidge has promised to throw out the first ball when the American league season opens here Tuesday. Clark Griffith, president of the Washington club, left annual passes for the president and Mrs. Coolidge.

Billiards.

Chicago, April 4.—(United News.) Augie Kirchhefer, Chicago, defeated Arthur Thurnblad, also of Chicago, 50 to 43, in their match today in the national championship, three-cushion billiard tournament. The match went 61 innings with each having a high run of five.

In the first match of the day, George Copulius, Detroit, defeated Leonard Kenney, Chicago, 50 to 36 in 53 innings.

Tickets for the bout are on sale at Heck Ehl's billiard parlor, Peachtree and Walton; G. M. Arnold Soda company, Broad and Luckie streets; and the Wilmet hotel.

How To Make Your Suit Look Twice As Good!

If your suit is one of the new Muse tans—get Muse's new hat of light Swiss tan to wear with it—

With a dark blue suit wear a Muse hat of silver gray—

With a suit of light or medium gray wear a Muse Spring hat of pearl—

With an oxford gray suit wear a hat of graphite—

That's getting style—and good taste—and 100% effectiveness—

Then add the right touch of color in tie and hose and you never looked so good!

This harmony works automatically for you at Muse's. Just do this:

1—Select your Muse Suit.

2—Next, take the vest to the Hat Department, the Furnishings Department, the Shoe Department—

When the Suit is delivered—you will also have the Muse Hat that goes with it—the Muse Tie and Shirt that add just the right color—and the Sox and Shoes that are correct with that suit!

WHAT'S A "2-BUTTON NOTCH"?

That means that the coat buttons with two buttons, and has notch lapels.

By skillful tailoring the lapels roll gracefully to the buttons—and set smoothly when the coat is unbuttoned. (You can tell if a coat is in balance by the even way the front drapes when unbuttoned.)

This "Two-button Notch" model is one of the three outstanding models for this Spring. The other two are: Muse's three-button coat with notch lapels; and Muse's two-button model with PEAK lapels.

This Picture Shows PEAK Lapels.

This is a peak lapel—it gives a more "dressy" effect—the shoulders of this coat are broader, to balance with the peak.

These models have different personalities—you need all three—try them on, today, at Muse's—and get them!
